

NEW REAL ESTATE FIRM HERE

Tillamook County has a new realty firm. McKinley & Vance, Dealers in Land, have opened an office on the ground floor of the Commercial Building, opposite the Todd Hotel.

F. B. McKinley needs no introduction to the residents of Tillamook County. H. T. Vance has been operating in real estate in Portland for the past six years. Both members of this firm come direct from the organization of Dorr E. Kenney & Co., the largest land dealers in the Northwest. These young men have had exceptional opportunities to familiarize themselves with city and farm values in Portland and the Willamette Valley. This training especially fits them for rendering the best service to property owners in Tillamook wishing to trade for city income property or Valley farms.

Mr. Vance has moved his family to Tillamook and for the present is occupying the Whitehouse property.

CO-OPERATIVE CHEESE COMPANY AT CLOVERDALE

From Courier:

The papers having been returned from the Secretary of State for the organization of the Cloverdale Cheese Company, Mr. Worthington is busy today selling stock. He is meeting with fine success, having already sold stock to the amount of $1,450 of the $2,000 which they aim to start with.

Following is a list of the stockholders registered up to the time of going to press and represents the most successful ranchers and business men of the county:

Frank Owens, Ed. Worthington, A. L. Applewhite, N. F. Measner, P. H. Messner, H. B. Lockwood, J. R. Lawrence, E. L. Landingham, D. A. Bailey, Wirt Sappington, Chas. Ray, Frank Worthington, J. L. Lawrence, E. L. Landingham, D. A. Bailey, Wirt Sappington, Chas. Ray, Frank Worthington, J. L. Lawrence, E. L. McCabe, W. J. Logus, G. W. Shaver, Chas. Lundquist, Joseph Wilson, J. L. Gay, E. L. Worthington, J. L. Burke, L. M. Kraner.

A meeting will be held Saturday afternoon at Cloverdale for the purpose of perfecting the organization and electing officers.

FIRE NEAR TIMBER

A fierce forest fire is raging north of P. R. & N. right of way near Timber. It was started by a spark from a donkey engine. The fire is in the Hammond and Wheeler Timber and at last report was sweeping a district a mile wide. The dry weather has made the danger from fire very great here, and extreme caution should prevail.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

Sunday School at 10 a. m. Mr. Walter Baker, Superintendent.

Morning worship and sermon by the pastor at 11 a. m. Sermon subject: "Has God spoken to the world? How does he speak to men today?"

The congregation will join the other churches in the city in the revival service at the risk at 8:30 p. m.

During the month of August the church will be closed. The pastor and his family will take their vacation at Elmore Park. The occupants of Wallulah Wigwam, one block north-east of The Elmore, are at home to their friends now.

D. A. MacKenzie, pastor.

UPPER NESTUCCA

Fine crop of hay, fine hay weather, everybody busy and old Bossy is smiling.

Ralph Weist, is all smiles these days. It's a girl.

Rev. Ward, of Beaver, preached in the grange hall last Sunday afternoon. Messrs Rupp, Trowbridge and Randol, of Fairview, were looking for wild blackberries on Nestucca hills one day this week.

An auto got out of fix on the Bays Creek road last Friday and remained in the road where teams could not pass until the middle of the afternoon, Saturday, which was very annoying to some of the citizens who had to pass there to get to their hay they were hauling.

An after harvest picnic is being arranged for by Nestucca grange and citizens of Upper Nestucca. It will be held in the grove on Mrs. N. Smith's place 2 1/2 miles below Blaine and 3/4 above Heaver on the Blaine road. The time, August 8th. Everybody come and have a good time. There is a program of one hour being arranged for at 11 a. m. and after dinner a game of base ball, and other amusements. The granges of the county have a special invitation from the grangers of Nestucca to attend while every body is invited to come and enjoy on day celebrating the abundant harvest we have been blessed with.

Winds up the Encampment.

The general committee which had charge of the G. A. R. encampment, held at the business at a meeting on Saturday evening at the Tillamook Commercial Club. There will be about $2,000 balance in the fund when a few matters are straightened out. The committee voted to give $500 of this to help feed the poor children who will be brought to this city from Portland for a summer's sojourn, and $500 to the Tillamook Commercial Club for publicity work. What remains in the fund will be divided between the G. A. R. and W. R. C.
