ARTISANS' CLAM BAKE CLUB.

Commercial Club to give. Reception. Clam Bake at Bar View Sunday

The special train from Portland on Saturday, Aug. 10th, bringing 250 Artisans, with all Supreme Lodge officers, and about 75 poor children, will reach Tillamook, about 3 p.m. Saturday. They will bring a number of babies, the Rose City Orchestra, the "Girls" full brass band, two of Portland's most celebrated musical organizations; also Mr. Rudolph Thomas, Baritone Soloist of the C. A. C. Glee Club; Mr. Harvey Hudson Lyric Tenor; Miss Smith, Lyric Soprano; Mr. D'Arcy, the vocal director, with other well known musicians. The "Musicians" will probably accompany them and take moving pictures of the special train at the depot upon its arrival and on landing, together with all the people and automobiles of the train and the parade up town. It is very important that every auto in the city and country should be at the depot Saturday at 3 p.m. to carry the distinguished guests and the "Kiddies" in the procession up town to advertise the city. Everyone with a machine, bumper, bumper, and about 15 inches, go to there to swell the crowd. The "Kiddies" and the guests will be taken to the hotel. The Hotel Tillamook will be headquarters. After this they will be taken for a ride and a 5 p.m. supper will be given the guests at the dining room by the local Artisans. The room "Kiddies" and all Artisans in the County—no others are invited to come to the supper and bring their own tables and tables will be furnished to spread them out.

A Commercial Club reception on Saturday evening, from 9 to 12 p.m. will be given in the extended guest, the visiting Artisans at the club rooms. The club will be especially decorated for them, with their colors Red, White and Blue. Refreshments will be served. There will be dancing, a most excellent musical program will be given by the musical talent coming with the special train, assisted by local talent. Program at the Club Reception is as follows: Music—Girls' Band. Solo—Rose City Orchestra. Formal introduction of Supreme Lodge Officers and Ladies. Address of welcome on behalf of Commercial Club, C. R. Worrall. Response—Mr. H. S. Hudson, Supreme Master Artisan. Selection—Rose City Orchestra. Baritone Solo—Rudolph Thomas, Portland O. A. C. Club. Duet—Portland Vocalists. Vocal Solo—Mrs. E. E. Koch, city. Solo—Miss Smith, Portland Lyric Soprano. Trio—Portland Vocalists. Solo—Harvey Hudson, Lyric Tenor. Selection—Rose City Orchestra. Refreshments, Dancing.

The reception will be confined to club members, their families, all visitors from outside, all Artisans and those who receive club invitations. The club, as usual, will do honor and sustain the state wide reputation of Tillamook for hospitality, and will be the social event of the summer. All visitors in the city and at the beaches are invited.

Sunday morning at 7:30 a.m. the Artisans special will leave for Bar View, where a grand clam bake on the beach will be tendered the Artisans by the Fish Club of that place. The clam bake will be free to all. Mr. Ober, of the Hotel, will serve clam chowder to all Artisans and invited guests, through the courtesy of the Artisans' Clam Bake Club, of Portland.

Bar View program follows: Address of welcome by Mr. M. Peterson; response, a representative of the Supreme Lodge of Artisans; Music by Girls' Band, Rose City orchestra and selections by the Portland vocalists, and bathing in surf. The Life Saving Crew, under Capt. Farley, will give both beach and water drills of one or two hours duration.

The railroad will have plenty of room for all desiring to go. The trains will leave at 7:30 and 10:30 forenoon, returning Sunday evening and night. Fare, round trip, 75c. All are invited to go and take lunch baskets or dinner can be ordered there for 50c at the Hotel, or restaurants from 25c to 50c.

The local Artisans desire to thank the county people and others who have so kindly agreed to care for the poor "Kiddies" from Portland, also especially thank the C. A. C. Committee for the gift of $50.00, and the Masonic Lodge for donation of $25.00 and others who are assisting. We gladly publish the following and know all our citizens will do every thing possible to extend our County and City hospitality to our visitors:

Committee from the local Artisan Assembly and Commercial Club will meet the incoming special train at Wheeler, present there the key of our city and accompany them to Tillamook.

It is earnestly desired that all persons appointed on committees for the Commercial Club Reception will be present at 8:30 p.m. sharp at the club rooms to assist in entertaining the guests, the chairman of all committees will see that this is done. There is work for all.

By order of the Club and Board of Trustees. W. G. Dwight, pres. C. R. Worrall, Sec.
