TUESDAY AUGUST 25, 1914.

The first month of the great Eurotions much in favor of the Germans and Austrians, so far as land battley are concerned.

According to Paris dispatches the French and English have been swent from Belgium and Germany, completeawaiting the onslaught of the Germans.

In the meantime the Russians have penetrated Germany on the northeast and have driven the Germans back, the Germans retiring to their heavy line of fortifications so or 150 miles from the low, marshy character which will neeessarily check to some argree the Russian mobilization, and the Germans have hopes that their first lim of heavy. defenses will be able to chees the Russian advance until the main German army which is mursed against the allies in France, can strike a grasning blow and reach Paris, after which reinforcements will be sent the German army in the east in an uttant on Russia.

The odds, so far as numbers are concerned seem to be against Germany and Austria, but this may be offset by Germany's complete preparation and perfeet plan of monitors on

Thus far the flying machine does not seem to have done a great amount of damage. However, late disputches state that Lordon is very fearful of an attack from the German air men and Antwerp has already suffered somewhat from an attack from the saics.

One of the latest developments in the world war is the declaration of war upon Germany by Japan, and the Japanese attack upon Tsing Tan, China, a German fortification.

The general apunton now seems to be that the war will last much longer than it was first thought it would.

HOP INDUSTRY.

From the Harrisburg Commonwealth: the probabilion argument which is to be voted upon this fall. Statistics W. S.
