a divorce suit filed in the circuit court. These parties were married on the 22nd of January, 1911, in Tillamook County, and two children have been born of the union. The grounds upon which the divorce is sought are cruel and inhuman treatment. Among other things charged in the complaint is that defendant has been unduly intimate with other men and on various occasions.
Sarah E. Blazer vs. Charles H.
Blazer, is another divorce case filed in the circuit court. These parties were married in Kansas in 1879, there being nine children born to the union.

NAMING A BATTLE.

Opposing Armies Do Not Always Give it the Same Designation.

Many of the world's most famous battles have two names. Thus the battle of Waterloo is known by that name only among English speaking peoples.
The French call it the battle of La Belle Alliance. The battle that decided the war between Prussia and Austria in 1866 is known among the Germans as the battle of Koenigsgraetz. In the war of 1870, between Germany and France, the great engagement that the Germans call the battle of Gravelotte is spoken of by the French as the battle of St. Privat.
The same thing was common in our civil war. The battle that is known in the north as the battle of Bull Run would not be recognized by most southerners under that name. In the south it is invariably called the battle of Manassas. So the battle that the Federal generals called the battle of Pittsburg Landing was by the Confederates called the battle of Shiloh. Antietam is called in the south the battle of Sharpsburg. The writer, a southerner, whose father was a Confederate officer, was twenty years old before he ever heard of the battle of Antietam, although he was familiar with all the details of the battle of Sharpsburg.

The reason for this is that the opposing armies always name the battle from some prominent geographical landmark, and as they look at the field from different points of view they naturally settle on different names. Thus at Waterloo, the battle took its English name from the little village where Wellington made his final headquarters and whence he sent to England the first dispatch that announced his victory. So in 1866 the headquarters of the Prussian army was near the village of Sadowa, whereas that of the Austrians was near the village of Koenigsgraetz. At Gravelotte the little village of that name was an important point in the German lines. On the part of the French the hamlet of St. Privat was the key to their position. St. Privat As long as the battle was in progress, invisible to the eyes of the combatants, it was in the rear and drove them out the day was lost.—Youth's Companion.

OUR MEDAL OF HONOR.

More Difficult to Win than Any Exercise Medal.—General.
Americans of average information know about the Victoria Cross, the Iron Cross, the Cross of the Legion of Honor. These are rewards of heroism which would mark a man above his fellows even in his foreign land.
But how many Americans know what a medal of honor is?
How many Americans know that the modest American soldiers who wear the medal of honor wear a decoration that is among the rarest and most difficult to win among military honors?
The Cross of the Legion of Honor, established by Napoleon in 1802, was founded to signalize deeds of special daring in war, was after given freely to military distinctions. Nearly 40,000 American soldiers were decorated with the Iron Cross in the seven months of the Franco-Prussian war, while in the more than half century since the creation of our honor roll only 3,088 have been granted, and of these nearly 100 were given under a mistaken reading of the law.
The holder of the medal of honor must have distinguished himself conspicuously by gallantry and intrepidity, at the risk of his life, beyond the call of duty. This standard, which bars out action, however brave, in the course of duty and includes only acts of daring which a man might refuse or avoid without rebuke is said to be unequaled.—Chicago Tribune.

Defendant deserted his wife in Tillamook County about 1st of November, 1912, and it is upon this ground that the divorce is sought.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Purchasers Would Withdraw Action.
Salem.—A tentative proposition was made to the state land board to have the state withdraw proceedings for recovery of 20,000 of the 60,000 acres involved in the Hyde-Benson dummy frauds, upon the payment of $2.50 an acre by the innocent purchasers. The consent of the government is necessary before the state can carry out the agreement.
A report of the purchasers asserted that they had secured the school tracts in good faith, and that to push the suit to recover title would be to infect a hardship on them. Some of the tracts have passed through several hands, it is said.

New Freight Terminal at Pendleton.
Pendleton.—Vice-President and General Manager J. P. O'Brien, of the O.
W. R. & N., announces that the proposed freight terminal at Pilot Rock Junction, near the Pendleton city limits, will probably be started early in the spring, but that an actual beginning depends upon the disposal of anti-railroad legislation at the coming session of the legislature. Mr. O'Brien says that the European war is not responsible for shortage of funds with which to improve the railroad system, but that legislation opposed to the railroads, together with high taxes is mainly responsible.

Boil Glass Dishes.
Glass dishes and vessels of all kinds may be rendered less liable to break if before being used they are put into boiling water to which salt has been added. Put the water, when cold, into a large pan, add the salt put in the glass vessels and bring the water slowly to the boil. Let it boil for a few minutes, take the pan off the fire and leave the glasses in the water until it is cold.

He Probably Did.
The young author, reading a fake animal story to the attentive editor, said: "Whereupon the woodchuck laughed softly to himself."
"Ah," remarked the editor, "I suppose he indulged in a woodchuckle."
