Cause of One War.

William the Conqueror lost his life in France through his horse treading on a reduct cinder while he was su perintending the burning of Mantes, but few people know the fact which gave rise to the campaign that cost William his life.

During the latter part of his reign he became abnormally stout and consequently the mughingstory of nor only his subjects, but his neighbors across the water. One day his contemporary, Philip of France, compared him to a fillet of yeat on custers and suggested that he should be exhibited at a prize monarch show. This so enraged William that he straightway made war upon his ridiculer, and the loss of thousands of ilves was the remit - London Tit Pits

RURAL SOCIAL CENTERS

We need social centers where our hysical exertion is greatly de- young people can be entertained amused and instructed under the direction of cultured, clean and competent leudership, where aesthetic surroundings stir the love for the beautiful, where art charges the atand innocent amusements instruct

To hold our young people on the farm we must make farm life more attractive as well as the business of farming more remunerative. The school house should be the social unit, properly equipped for nourishing and building character, so that the lives of our people can properly function around it and become supplied with the necessary elements of human thought and activity.
