JOHN GUEST DEAD.

John Guest father of W. H. J. Guest, merchant of this city, died at the Bools hospital on Sunday night. Deceased had been operated on for cancer of the neck. The operation was successful and the wound healed nicely, but after the third day he weakened and gradually sank away, not being able to stand the shock.

The funeral service was held this afternoon in the Masonic Hall, Rev. Jones of the Episcopal Church officiating. Interment took place at the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Deceased was born in England March 20th 1839. He was married to Valentina Finch at the age of 20 and at the age of 30 he came to America. He resided for many years in New York state and for a time in Michigan and Alberta. He has resided for four years in Oregon. He leaves three sons and two daughters. He also leaves a brother at Bayone, New Jersey. He had been in Tillamook but a few weeks, his son having brought him here from Portland. The Guests have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

OBITUARY

Mrs. S. M. Sawyer.

The Evanston News-Index (Ill.):

Mrs. Salanda M. Sawyer, wife of former Senator Lewis M. Sawyer of 1081 Maple avenue, died last Monday afternoon at her home in Evanston. She and her husband had lived together for over fifty-five years and reared a family of eight children, consisting of four sons and four daughters, the youngest of whom is 35 years of age; they have ten grandchildren and Mrs. Sawyer's death is the first death which has occurred in their family in the fifty-five years since their marriage, they having never lost a child or grandchild in that time. Mr. Sawyer is retired from business and for many years their time has been divided between Evanston and California.

Mrs. Sawyer's parents were pioneers in northern Illinois and were prominently identified with Livingston and La Salle counties, her father, Albert Moon, having come from Ohio in 1823 and settled in the place which was subsequently named after him on the Santa Fe railroad. Her parents in the early days lived among the Indians and sometimes sought protection in the forts, and her father was active in the Black Hawk war. It is interesting to note that in those pioneer days in the absence of prominent settlers were accustomed to entertain guests in a patriarchal way, and Abraham Lincoln and David Davis were among those entertained at their home, and as an interesting sidelight on the life of those early days, in gratitude for the hospitality extended to him, the future president insisted on gathering and preparing for the table the vegetables and fruit provided for his entertainment.

Their children are: Mrs. Elmer E. Ames of Topeka, Kan.; Mrs. David H. Bloom, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Charles M. Sawyer, governor of the Federal Reserve bank of Kansas City, Mo.; Ward B. Sawyer, a practicing attorney of Chicago; Commander Frederick L. Sawyer (retired) of the United States navy; Mrs. Wm. G. Tait of Tillamook, Ore.; Mrs. Stevens A. Colderen of Kansas City, Mo.; and Robert B. Sawyer of Chicago.

Mrs. Sawyer will be buried Thursday, January 21, in Riverside cemetery, Streator, Ill., near her former home.

Quite a few people met Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer when they were here a few years ago on a visit at the home of their daughter Mrs. Wm. G. Tait. Mrs. Tait is now at Evanston.

Circuit Court In Session.

Judge Belt Presides At His First Term Of Court Here. Liquor Law Violators Up.

Judge Belt is holding circuit court this week, taking up equity cases. The grand jury is also in session and have had several matters under investigation. Several secret indictments have been found, and also a true bill against S. Seelich, who is charged with forgery. Frank Pearson, who has been in the county jail since early in December, on a charge of larceny for stealing a suitcase, was released by the grand jury.

In the case of Viola Mills vs. C. E. DeAlpin, defendant's motion to strike out parts of the complaint was denied and the case was set for trial on Saturday.

The case of Hadley vs Hadley which has been in the circuit court for a number of years, and which was once decided by the state supreme court, made its appearance again Monday, when, Oak Nolan, attorney for the plaintiff moved that the judgment be set aside on the ground that Judge Holmes, was unqualified to act when he made a certain order in the case during the time Mr. Holmes was judge of this court. Mr. Nolan charged in his affidavit, that he had an agreement with Judge Holmes, by which the suit was to be dropped upon payment by the defendant, Clark Hadley, of the sum of $10,000, $2500 of which was to be paid to Mr. Holmes, and $7,500 to Nolan. Judge Holmes was called to the witness stand by Mr. Danvers, attorney, for Mr. Hadley, and declared that the statements made by Mr. Nolan were absolutely false. In answer to re-open the case was made by Judge Belt.

In the case of Reiffel vs Turner, in which the plaintiff asked for an injunction restraining the defendant from moving his property from the plaintiff's farm, which had been rented by the defendant. The court denied the injunction, and gave judgment for the defendant. Attorney J. R. Callahan representing the defendant, and E. J. Chasen is attorney for the plaintiff.

Alley vs. Alley, which is a suit in which both parties ask for a divorce, has been set for Wednesday morning. Geo. P. Winslow is attorney for the plaintiff and S. S. Johnson is appearing for defendant.

OF COUNTY JUDGE VACANT

Decision of the Supreme Court of this and several other counties in this state has been declared vacant. Judges were elected in these counties last fall but the Attorney General decided that old incumbents hold over, because of an act of legislature overlooked. Ace who was elected here last fall doubt be appointed to fill the vacancy.

BIG MAIL ORDER MELON CUT.

Directors of Sears, Roebuck & Co. recommended the payment of a $30,000,000 stock dividend to holders of $40,000,000 common stock of the mail order corporation at a meeting at Chicago, Jan. 30.

The new shares of the 50 per cent dividend will be issued against an accumulated surplus of approximately $32,500,000, a large part of which has been reinvested in the business, it is said.

The recommendation adopted by the directors provided that the distribution should be made April 1 to stockholders of record March 15. A special meeting of stockholders was called for February 23, to approve the board's recommendation and to vote on a plan to increase the authorized amount of the corporation's common stock from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000.
