Presbyterian Church Notes.

At the closing meeting of the best spiritual revival Tillamook has expersenced within the last five years, held in the United Brethren church, under the leadership of the Holy Spirit and Rev. M. Summerhn of Salem, Oregon, the praying and Bible loving members and adherents of the Methodist, Pres-byterian, United Brethren, and Naz-arene churches agreed to sustain for the weeks to come, a regular weekly union prayer meeting. The first of these meetings will be held in the Presbyterian Church next Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. It is the inten-tion to hold these meetings of prayer and testimony on some week night eve-ning other than Wednesday, in order to or another and this oil would come in on the beach and kill the spawn from the female crabs. He states that there is no formible danger of the clams being thinned out here.

In the weeks need that we weeks need that the right of way to hold its own mid-week meeting. But the meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 17, will be an exception to the rule. We have had a blessed fellowship of seven weeks nearlying and working together. CALL FOR WARRANTS

POTATO SCAB.

Potato scab is a very common discase and one which is easily overcome with little care and treatment. In the first place do not place your potatoes this year in the same ground that produced rough, scabby potatoes that ground and use a new piece for the salvation of souls in Tillamook, and we can't afford to let up or step the good work which has only just begun. Let us pray for a perennial revival in Tillamook. We need a higher standard of Christianity in this city, less feasting and picnicing on the Lord's Day, a greater heed to the Gospel of repentance of sin, and the quitting of known sin, as well as an outpouring of the Iloly Spirit upon men and women cleansed from sin and that ground and use a new piece for the salvation of souls in Tillamook, and we can't afford to let up or step the good work which has only just begun. Let us pray for a perennial revival in Tillamook. We need a higher standard of Christianity in this city, less feasting and picnicing on the Lord's Day, a greater heed to the Gospel of repentance of sin, and the quitting of known sin, as well as an outpouring of the Iloly Spirit upon men and women cleansed from sin and striving to obey every known command of our blessed Lord and Master.
