Lands Cheaply Logged Off
Feeney-Bremer Co., Put Economical Land Clearing Machine on Market
Tillamook, Oregon.
The Feeney-Bremer Co. has just completed a very economical device for clearing land in the shape of a gasoline donkey engine, equipped with a 10 h. p. heavy duty engine. The total weight of the machinery is 5,200 lbs. mounted on runners and can be pulled anywhere on a straight line by its own power.
The donkey part consists of a double drum, double friction, equipped with breaks. It has 400 feet of 1/2 in. cable and 800 feet of 3/4 inch cable. As a demonstration it recently pulled with ease a 20 foot log 3 feet in diameter over rough ground. Anyone wishing a demonstration of the workings of the machine can witness the same by calling at the Feeney-Bremer Co. Works.
The price for the above equipment ranges from $700 for 10 h. p. up, larger sizes costing accordingly.
The engine consumes distillate, consuming 6 gallons in 10 hours, cost 10c a gallon.
The engine used is detachable and can be used for other things.
Feeney-Bremer Co. are offering a fine proposition for two or more farmers who wish to go in together on a device that will clear their land cheaply and easily. Two men can run the machinery used and handle it successfully.
Those who may have use for such a machine will do well to investigate.

HARNESSES

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

Considerable building activity is expected in Lebanon this summer.
Linn county expended $181,543.95 in improvement of its highways during 1914.
The Hood River commercial club is interesting itself in the improvement of a city park.
A short course for Klamath county farmers and their wives is to be held the week of February 22 to 27.
Bids for the construction of the $122,000 Pendleton postoffice will be opened at Washington, D. C., March 25.
Fully 1000 men, representing the retail interests of the whole state of Oregon, met in Portland Monday to attend the annual convention of the Retail Merchants' association.
Seven tons of acclimated seed corn will be distributed to Oregon farmers along the lines of the O. W. R. & N. company, commencing March 1, by C. L. ("Farmer") Smith, of that company.
Two boys, each about 19 years old, giving the names of Jack Anderson and Frank Riley, are in the county jail at Eugene charged with burglary of the jewelry store of L. Weiss in Eugene.
Captain R. W. Collins, U. S. A., Coast Artillery Corps, instructor of the 3rd annual inspection of the Coast Artillery Corps. He was accompanied by Adjutant-General White.
With six cow testing associations carrying slightly more than 2000 dairy cows on official test, dairymen of Coos county lead all counties of the United States in this progressive plan of building up the dairy herds.
Forty-eight accidents were reported to Labor Commissioner Hoff during the week, but were no fatality.
Fifteen accidents occurred among the men engaged in lumbering and logging, and 12 among railroad employees.
The house has appropriated $366,000 for the Unatilla reclamation project, and $77,000 for the Klamath project. Twenty-five thousand dollars has been appropriated for fire protection of lands involved in the Oregon & California land grant suit.
George Isackson, of Portland, has received the contract for the erection of the postoffice building at Tillamook at a price of $73,658. The construction will be of sandstone. The building will be two stories above a basement 70 by 78 feet.
The success of the Powder River Gold Dressing company in its operation of dredges in the Sumpter district, has led to the adoption of this means of saving the values at several old placer properties, including that at Gold Center in the Sumpter district.
Taking the remains of an I. W. W. speaker as an insult to Americans, M. J. Parsons, a soldier from Vancouver barracks, knocked the speaker from his stand at Fifth and Alder streets in Portland and started a small riot which was only quelled by the timely arrival of the police.
Governor Withycombe has granted a conditional pardon to Earl Shortson, 17 years old, who is in the Marion county jail. He was arrested February 4 on the charge of stealing a pulley and log chain which he sold for 50 cents. He was convicted and sentenced to a term of 30 days.
The district forester at Portland announces that during the fiscal year 1914, there were 521 timber sales made from the national forests in Oregon, and 142 from the forests in Washington. This represents 24,594,000 feet board measure for Oregon and 109,144,000 feet board measure for Washington.
The largest property sale closed last week in the state involved the transfer of the Ben Harrison mine, located in the Greenhorn district not far from Baker, to the American Smelting & Refining company for a consideration understood to be about $500,000. About 40 men have been employed at the mine, which produces approximately $15,000 a month when in operation.
As spring comes on it becomes more and more apparent that there will have to be more reseeded in Unatilla county than was thought a few weeks ago. Farmers whose first examinations led them to believe that their grain was not damaged by the cold weather are now admitting that some of their fields will have to be resown. The lack of moisture in the ground resulted in much freezing out during the cold snaps.
President Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural college, has announced the appointment of guides for the Oregon building at the San Francisco exposition. These men were selected by a committee, which took into consideration the scholastic record of the applicants, their appearance and personality and the knowledge of the state of Oregon as indicated by the answers given to questions asked in a recent examination. Lectures were given by a number of members of the faculty, preparing the applicants for the examination. Out of about 300 men who applied for appointment 120 were allowed to take the examination and 30 were appointed. In addition 22 alternates were chosen.
