Chas. F. Alexander, ex-postmaster at Garibaldi, has been sentenced by Judge Bean of the Federal Court at Portland, to 12 months at the Federal prison at McNeil's Island, for embezzling the U. S. Post Office Department. One way in which Alexander defrauded the government was in collections on C. O. D. parcel post packages. Friends came to his rescue at the last and added him to the extent of $1500, which amount reimbursed the government. It was stated, however, that Alexander was short in his express accounts, he also being express agent at Garibaldi.

This is the best comedy drama ever offered in this city. Victor Belmont is an officer in one of the regiments that are ordered to the front. He was about to be married, and the girl thinking it only a selfish motive that prompts him to go, accuses him of seeking promotion at her expense, causes him to define a soldier's courage saying, "to gain promotion a fellow would gladly risk his life when it's a fair fight of man to man, but when the chances are ten to one of his dying from disease in the trenches, the bravest soldier cannot help feeling a little of a coward." EMBASSY READY TO MOVE

Germany Asks United States to Guard Interests in Turkey.
Washington—Germany has asked the United States to care for its diplomatic interests in Constantinople should the allied forces occupy the capital of Turkey. Ambassador Morgenthau has been instructed to assume that duty when the German minister to Turkey leaves with the Ottoman government for Eschkehr, the newly-selected temporary capital for the ports. The minister is arranging to place the German legation in charge of the American ambassador.
There is every indication from the official dispatches received here both at the Turkish embassy and the Washington government that the Ottoman forces have made extensive preparations to defend all approaches to Constantinople.

3 MORE FORTS ARE SILENCED IN STRAITS

London—Three more strong forts in the inner straits of the Dardanelles have been silenced by the Anglo-French fleet after terrific bombardment, according to an official communication given out by the British Admiralty.
It is admitted in the official report that a majority of the war vessels engaging the forts by entering the straits have been hit, some of them numerous times. Serious damage is denied.
The Turkish official report declares that one British battleship has been badly damaged and that a French armored cruiser has been put out of action. None of the batteries has been damaged, says this report.
Damage by the forts which have been replying vigorously to the assaults of the fleet has not been confined to the vessels, as several seaplanes, acting as scouts for the Anglo-French fleet, have been brought down.
The warships are now engaged in reducing the forts in the Narrows, which is considered the most difficult section of the Dardanelles, from the point of view of an attacking force.

Suffragists Lose in Delaware.
