TUESDAY JUNE 1, 1915.

R. M. WADE WILL.

From Oregonian
"That no funeral shall be conducted without a group of display, and that there shall be no extravagant expenditure of money in the erection of a monument or an ornament of the grave or family burial lot. Such expenditure should be reserved for the use of the living."

This is the wish expressed in the will of R. M. Wade, who died May 12. The will was filed in County Clerk Coffey's office yesterday.

"It is also my will," continues the document, "that no clergyman be employed or requested to attend on the occasion of my funeral, other than as a friend, the same as my other friends."

Neither the will nor the petition which accompanied it contained an estimate of the value of Mr. Wade's estate. He was owner of R. M. Wade & Co., a large farm implement store.

R. L. Wade now owns 200 shares of the corporation of R. M. Wade & Co., which by the terms of the will the remainder of the stock in the corporation is given to the daughter, Mrs. Susan E. Newlogin, who also gets the house and two lots at 400 Holiday avenue, where Mr. Wade lived.

The dwelling and store building at Tillamook owned by Mr. Wade is bequeathed to Robert L. Wade.

All of the remaining property, including all of the capital stock of Wade & Wade Company, of Gilliam County, is to be divided into five equal parts. One part is given to Mrs. S. May Glafke, a daughter, one to Mrs. Newlogin and two to R. L. Wade. The remaining part is to be deposited with the Security Savings & Trust Co. to be invested for Gladys May Wade and Garry Milfred Wade, grandchildren of Mr. Wade. Half of the sum so deposited for each of the girls, to be turned over to them with interest when they are 21 years old.

The will names Robert L. Wade and Edward Newlogin as executors. The document was dated March 5, 1914, and is witnessed by W. H. Wade and E. R. Williams.

A provision contained in the will required that the remains of Mr. Wade's two dead children, Cora B. and William I. Wade, be moved from the cemetery at Salem and buried in the family lot at Hopedale Cemetery.

Mr. Wade was 55 years old when he died. He was a pioneer of Oregon having crossed it on his first voyage train when he was a child. Many years of his life were passed in Eastern Oregon, where he first started in the farm implement business. Later he moved to Salem, forming the corporation of R. M. Wade & Co. there. Some years ago he moved the company's headquarters to Portland.

Although he was known to be wealthy, Mr. Wade led a simple life, taking no active part in public affairs.

CALIFORNIA JUBILEE QUARTETT.

One of the vocal wonders of the day is the double-voiced singer with the California Jubilee Quartet. He appears in a handsome gown, decorated with all trappings, and looks very "fashionable." His numbers are particularly well adapted to his voice and are selections which any prima donna might be proud. He scores his biggest success in carrying the soprano to some of the more difficult classics. Mr. Payne is advertised as the only impersonator of "Black Pat" on the Pacific Coast, and if the news is to be considered the index, he must be far beyond the ordinary. The papers give him the warmest praise. It is an uncommon thing for this singer to start up and down the scale like any almost lost soprano or to start a piece in one of his voices and finish it in the other. People can't do him justice in telling you of his qualities. You must hear and see for yourself.

The California Jubilee Quartet will appear at the Christian Church on Friday and Saturday evenings, June 11th and 12th, commencing the dates, and do not miss this musical treat.

A pianist well known by his own people and now attracting the attention of musicians of the country is Samuel S. R. S. Stewart, the pianist for the California Jubilee Quartet. Unlike the cultured pianist of the past, Mr. Stewart is a musician possessing a technical knowledge of the theory of music, combined with an adaptability to study and practice which no other negro musician has ever approximated. His execution is as near perfect as may be, his touch being as light as a feather and again as hard as steel. His interpretation is considered to be that of a master, displaying the human emotions, the passions, the sorrows and the joys, as easily and simply as a school girl at play. He plays the most difficult selections from the old masters with a grace and ease that is refreshing. You should not miss the opportunity to hear this "Black Paderewski."

Mr. Stewart possesses another talent—his voice. He carries the baritone in the quartet, but easily jumps into the tenor or bass as occasion arises. Prof. Alfred Best of the Utah Conservatory of Music, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "I consider Mr. Stewart the best pianist I have ever heard of in the colored race, and as to his singing Mr. Stewart has a very fine, big voice of wide range and sings with fine taste." At the Christian Church June 11th and 12th. Don't forget the dates.

THE FIRST LEAGUE GAME.

(By E. E. Shaw)

The center game in Tillamook of the Tillamook County League was played Sunday at the Fair Grounds between Tillamook and Beaver. With a clear sky over head and a good diamond under foot the teams struggled for supremacy, and it was a good game—the kind of a game that warms the blood, quickens the pulse, stirs the numbers and makes every fan happy. Not that it was a classic in faultless playing for that could hardly be expected with so little opportunity for cohesive play by "line" and "infield." It was simply one of those games where the God of Baseball stacks the cards with a joker here and there in the shape of an error with the result that the contest is close, uncertain and inspiring beyond the usual length of nine innings.

Neither team got any scores until the first of the third when Beaver plucked two and gave Tillamook a hoop. Beaver came back with another score in the fourth and Tillamook managed to do the same stunt. The 5th passed by without either scoring and in the first of the 6th Beaver came in just long enough to get a drink of water and another zero, followed by a score by Tillamook making the score then two and three.

Right here everyone started to warm up and Tillamook tightened her belt for another score to tie. The 7th passed with nothing stirring for either side. The eighth gave Beaver another hole. It is now the last of the eight. Tillamook is to last. Blanchard singles, Alderman strikes out, Blanchard squats on second, Driscoll finds the ball and on an error makes first. It was here that King threw his game away. He had the ball in his hands, hesitated whether to throw to third or first and finally decided the wrong way altogether. The ball and Blanchard slipped to third and scored on Mills' single. Hesterman drives a long fly to center which is caught and relayed to second catching Mills' robe from home and retiring the side on a double play.

Score seen south coming. Beaver pulls down one. The fans work their selves into a frenzy and Mills sends the ball out to his bench with the result that they get afraid of losing their jobs and come to bat with the determination to tie it again. Mad-dax leads off with an out at first. Wallace gets to first. Ross takes for base on balls. It looks like a baton sensation. Everybody cheers. Wallace slips to third. Driscoll is substituted and he stays in on a pass ball.

Tied again. The team Nothing to Beaver. Driscoll gets to first on an error. Mills hits a three-bagger and the game is one.

Struck out by Blanchard 11, King 10, Mills 1.

On the level it was a great game, and it proves that the association cannot in some ball and that the south end of the county is going to be somewhere near the top when the curtain is rung down.

Details on Bay City vs. Nehalem not at hand. Score 6 to 1 in favor of Bay City.

Standing of Teams.

| Team | Won | Lost | Points |
|-----------|-----|------|--------|
| Tillamook | 1 | 0 | 1000 |
| Bay City | 1 | 0 | 1000 |
| Nehalem | 0 | 1 | 100 |
| Beaver | 0 | 1 | 1000 |

On the afternoon of Decoration Day the Redmen played Tillamook and were defeated. Tillamook winning by a score of 13 and 5. Floyd Wolfe was quite badly injured in the arm during this game. He was running to third and in sliding ran his arm into a sharp spike that stuck out from the base. It seems that the spike had been used to keep the bag fast to the base but that the bag became loose and the spike protruded in such a way as to pierce a hole through the flesh and muscle of Floyd's left elbow.
