Mat Thompson and Ralph Welsh of Blaine drove a large herd of beef cattle to town Monday for Mr. Sprout of Ontario, Ore. These cattle and others obtained in this vicinity were put aboard cars and shipped to Montana. Howard Edmund and Ben Neilson who sold Mr. Sprout some of the cattle accompanied him with the cattle to help look after them.

A horse and buggy and an automobile collided on Second Ave. last Sunday. It seems that two rigs were racing past the Tillamook Hotel towards Halton's corner, when one, occupied by Messrs. Finnie and Williams collided at the corner near the bank with an auto going north. The other rig had room to turn north and escape the auto. The horse was thrown to the ground by the impact but no damage was done and no one was injured. The auto was occupied by Louie Larson and wife and Mrs. Edwall.

W. S. U'Ren, Jr., of Dayton, Ore., and Miss Margaret Miles of Portland were married on Friday last. Mrs. U'Ren is the daughter of H. A. Miles of Woods. The newly-weds arrived here Saturday and went down to Woods spending Sunday and Monday there, returning and taking the train here this morning for Portland.

Suppose you started to telephone a pal and just at that instant the greatest living detective stepped out of the booth you were about to enter and said, "you can telephone from my office." What would you do? See what Anna Little does, as the heroine of the Black Box. See its 15 gripping episodes at the Star Theatre. There's a punch in every scene, a smash in every episode. If you enjoy the movies you'll be enthralled when you see the Black Box.

Dr. H. C. Viereck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Viereck of this city, who has been studying medicine at college Medical-Chirurgical of Philadelphia, arrived home last Sunday for his summer vacation. Mr. Viereck is making a specialty of surgery. He will graduate next year. He says that all those factories in the east which are manufacturing war materials are running double time, and that the people are quite prosperous in these manufacturing centers. He also states that there is a universal desire for peace in the east and that the people as a whole are upholding President Wilson in this crisis.
