BAR VIEW NOTES

Bar View, Ore., June 9, 1915. (Special to the Herald.) Bar View is getting on her summer dress. The pride of the Tillamook County beaches is already a busy place. Several new buildings have been put up this year and there are in process of erection. With several added features including an increased water supply, electric lights, a fine garage and a dry goods store, Bar View will be better prepared than ever to entertain visitors. Thousands of people went away last year singing the praises of Tillamook County beaches and many of them with many of their friends will be back again this year. So it behooves all of our citizens to be ready to extend the glad hand to all strangers as they appear within our gates.

A. J. Sullivan has moved his stock of dry goods and notions from Tillamook City to Bar View and is located in the long building belonging to the hotel concession. In one part of the building Mr. Sullivan expects soon to have an up-to-date confectionery. We wish him success.

F. C. Robinson, our enterprising postmaster and leading grocer, has enlarged his store room and added all kinds of camp supplies to his stock.

John Miller, our genial baker is with us again and can be found in the new store building recently built by Mrs. Tobias on Main Street.

Ed McGinnis is our new tonsorial artist and has his headquarters at the White Camp. Mrs. McGinnis is visiting her mother at Cornelius, Ore., this week.

Roy Christolm, formerly a grocery merchant at Astoria, in Portland, has leased the Jackson building on Main St. and will run a grocery and confectionery business this summer. Roy and his father have built a nice summer cottage on their lot on the mountain side. They have a most beautiful view.

F. R. Johnson and N. O. Terry will have an up-to-date restaurant in the Smith building on Main St. They are recent arrivals from Portland where they conduct a similar business. They will be ready for business about the 15th inst.

R. E. and E. F. Jackson (Jackson Bros.) are conducting the bowling alley and billiard hall again this year. They have already done considerable business.

H. S. Hewett has treated his building to a new coat of paint. A little paint greatly adds to the appearance of all buildings.

Edward Carter has added several new buildings to the number of his summer cottages. He has otherwise improved his premises by leveling off the ground.

Captain Farley of the Life Saving Station has built a fine log bungalow on his lot near where the jetty starts.

Owing to an increased demand for water, largely due to the addition of the lighting plant, R. E. Jackson, Supt. of the water company is building a new and much larger dam for the new reservoir. W. H. Sales is superintending the building of the dam.

Dr. Wise is busy leveling off his tract in Ocean View, preparatory to the erection of several summer cottages. Richard Dorman is doing most of the work.

L. J. Tolls and wife have arrived for the summer and are busy getting Villa Camps ready for summer business.

Manville Robison is building a nice little cottage, with just room enough for two, on his lot near Villa Camp. He says he is getting tired of batching.

Miss Pearl Alley has assumed her former position as assistant clerk at the Bar View Grocery.

C. I. Clough and wife and F. C. Baker and wife drove over in an auto Sunday from Tillamook and dined at the Bar View hotel.

Joe Donaldson and wife, G. W. Burge, Morrison Mills, Grant Mills and T. E. Juppelt drove over in autos Sunday from Tillamook.

D. C. Brown and E. G. Munson, of the Pacific States Telephone Co. were in town the first of the week. They installed new phones for A. J. Sullivan and the residence tent of Dr. Wise and moved the long distance booth from the Bar View grocery to the Bar View Hotel.

H. A. Pierce is the name of the new barber at Garibaldi. He is a recent arrival from Portland and expects his family this week. Mr. Pierce expects soon to open a lunch room in the building formerly used as a post office, and will serve light lunches, tea, coffee, etc.

John Clemenson who arrived Monday, is the first of the Clemensons to arrive for the summer. He says the family will come in about another month. John is a recent graduate from Washington High School, Portland.

M. F. Abrams, our resident photographer, will make a specialty of beach views this summer. He will do developing of kodak work and will keep photograph supplies.

THE SANITARY MARKET

On Saturday, June 12, the new Sanitary Market opens for business in the store building formerly occupied by the Grand Leader.

The new market is neat and clean in every respect and glass show cases have been installed, wherein all cut meats will be kept away from the flies and dust.

Everett Hall, late of Portland, but well known to Tillamook people is manager of the new shop. The people of Tillamook may be assured of the most courteous and fair treatment from Mr. Hall.
