

Look Out For SUNBURN

DON'T let the sun blister and burn away your complexion. There is nothing attractive about a red, blistered skin, even in summer, and you will have a greater cause for regret next winter when you find you have ruined your complexion for good.

We can help you to safeguard your complexion throughout the season. We have a number of popular remedies for removing sunburn, freckles, and all blemishes caused by exposure to the sun, wind and weather.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

The state G. A. R. encampment opened at McMinnville Sunday.

Eighty-five seniors were graduated from the University of Oregon Wednesday.

Henry Woodward, author of the "Lyrics of the Unquaga," and other works, died at Roseburg at the age of 88 years.

Ninety-four per cent of the pupils of Polk county schools, who took the recent eighth grade examinations, passed successfully.

The 19th annual institute convention of the Epworth leagues of The Dalles district held a four days' session at The Dalles.

The Clatsop county fair board has set September 21, 22 and 23 as the dates for this year's county fair, to be held at Gearhart Park.

The 23d annual session of Oregon yearly meeting of the Friends' Church was held at Newberg with a large attendance from Pacific coast states.

Twenty-five hundred persons were fed at an open air barbecue served at Corvallis by Corvallis merchants to farmers of Benton and Linn counties in the vicinity of Corvallis.

Forty-seven out of a total of 56 applicants for admission to practice dentistry successfully passed the examination held at Salem the past week by the Oregon State Board of Dental Examiners.

Members of Moose lodges in every town in the north Willamette valley, including Oregon City and Molalla, will gather at Aurora June 22, when the Aurora lodge will give a carnival and picnic.

In another week the administration building of the University of Oregon will be completed. The concrete work is already finished, plasterers are putting on finishing touches and the marble walls, hall and staircases are in place.

Clackamas county won 49 of the 128 gold, silver and bronze medals awarded for exhibits of the Willamette valley exposition association, or more than one-third of the total. Eight counties had entries in the valley association's display.

Congressman W. C. Hawley has received word from Washington that the secretary of the interior had approved the clear lists for patents covering 11,351 acres of the central Oregon irrigation project, same being lists numbers 5 and 8, with the exception of 49 acres.

Attorney General Brown has rendered an opinion that the state board of control can expend a part of the $50,000 appropriated by the legislature for the promotion of flax retting and other work at the state penitentiary for the purchase of road material and machinery.

Additional Klamath county acreage is to be brought under irrigation this season. R. Emmitt is installing a pumping outfit to irrigate 1200 acres of land on the Keno road. Pipes are now being laid and the pumps will be electrically operated on power furnished from Keno.

Secretary of State Oleott says that numerous notaries throughout the state are not complying with the law passed at the recent session of the legislature providing that every time their seal is used they must write or stamp on the document when their commission expires.

Work will be resumed in a few days on Columbia county's unit of the Columbia highway. The controversy with the Consolidated Contract company was formally settled by the payment of $67,000 and a new contract was awarded to the Standifer, Clarkson company of Portland to complete the construction at unit prices a little under those paid the Consolidated Contract company.

At the request of Governor Johnson, of California, Governor Withycombe has appointed three delegates to attend the ninth annual conference of the National Tax association, to be held at San Francisco, August 19-24. The delegates are: Henry Reed, Assessor of Multnomah county, Portland; Charles V. Galloway, member of the tax commission, Salem; and F. A. Ross, Portland.

At the request of the National Top Notch Farmers' club, Governor Withycombe has announced the appointment of three boys from each county of Oregon as delegates to the Universal Corn convention to be held in San Francisco, August 5 and 6. These boys have been selected upon recommendation of the county superintendents of the state because of the interest they have manifested in agricultural work, either in school or on the farm.

During the week 168 accidents, four fatal, were reported to the state industrial accident commission, 114 being subject to the workmen's compensation act, while 31 were from public utility corporations and 23 from firms or corporations not under the act. An unknown man was killed by a train at Drain; L. E. Sheppard was killed at Falls City while logging; Iac Crzedamis, logger, was crushed to death at Marshfield, and Ole Olson was similarly killed at Banks. Thirty-six of the injured were hurt in sawmills, and 27 in construction work.
