Red Men Drop Game To Beaver. Good
Games Promised For 2nd and 3rd.

A large attendance witnessed one of the latest base ball games played on the local diamond Sunday when the local league leaders, won from the Chas. A. to 1. Blanchard pitched a fine game for Tillamook allowing but one run. Wallace was given a trial on second and played a good game. This was the best the team has played in the season but Wallace is expected to fill in very satisfactorily.

The Redmen who takes Nehalem place in the league lost their initial game at Beaver in a slow contest. The Redmen made a good start getting on base in the second and bunching runs for five runs. Beaver likewise developed a hitting streak and in the last of the eighth managed to catch up and make two more for good measure winning by a score of 15 to 18.

The first Beaverton team which has been from most of the amateur teams in Portland will play Tillamook on the local diamond the second, third and fourth next Friday Saturday and Sunday. This will be by far the best team seen here this season. The game will be called immediately after the arrival of the train from Beaverton at 2:30 p.m.

MRS. ALICE RONECKE DEAD.

News reached Cloverdale Sunday morning of the death of Mrs. Alice Ronecke. Some time ago Mrs. Ronecke was taken to Portland for medical treatment where it was thought an operation would be necessary, but death relieved her suffering. LADY McDUFF

The Oregon Agricultural College has the honor of having the record-breaking hen of the world, so far as authoritative records go, She laid 303 eggs last year. Naturally there is much interest in the madam, and so little pride in her achievement. When her record was made known to the Board of Regents they were asked officially to name her. Senator H. von der Hellen, of the board, spoke promptly saying "Shakespeare provided her name long ago, Lady McDuff—Lay on McDuff." She carries the name to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and will carry it on the rolls of fame for many a day.—Journal of Education, Boston.

On Sunday Al Boone of Cloverdale and Miss Gertie McKimins were married at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKimins of Mulier. The groom is in the blacksmithing business at Cloverdale and is an industrious and much respected young man. They left on Monday for a trip outside.

RACKET IN THE SOUTH END.

District Attorney Goynes was called to Cloverdale the first of the week to look after a case in Judge Taylor's court relative to an altercation which a fellow by the name of Dugan got into with a man by the name of Paul. Dugan and Paul went down the Nestucca in a motor boat and on the way got into a row which resulted in Paul having Dugan arrested for assault. Attorney Goynes considered the evidence on this charge as insufficient as there was simply the word of one man against another and it appears they had been drinking. Dugan, however, got into a mixup at Pacific City and in the melee cut the tires of the auto owned by the Cloverdale butcher who had gone to Pacific City to get him. This damage was settled for, however, and the case was dismissed. It seems that Dugan had a sum of money on him which was lost or stolen, and the disappearance of this money was one of the causes of the trouble. We have later learned that a part of the money in dispute has been found.
