FRIDAY JULY 16, 1915.

BAR VIEW

Bar View, this, July 16, 1915. To the Herald, owing to the inclement weather during the past week, the attendance at the benches has not been very heavy. We must get in touch with the weather man.

Mrs. Mabel Robertson was a Portland guest at the Chisholm cottage over the week end.

W. Headland of St. Johns, Oregon, was at Bar View for a few days this week.

Miss Dorothy Diamond has just returned to her home in Portland after spending a week as the guest of Mrs. C. F. Morsell and Mrs. Marshall's mother, Mrs. Frank Bond, at their lovely home in Bosen Knoll cottage.

The familiar face of J. A. Clouston who is here from Portland on his annual vacation, is again seen on our streets.

Mrs. John Rogers and Mrs. C. M. Chisholm are guests at the Chisholm cottage from Portland.

Mrs. Frank Evans and daughter Grace have arrived from Portland for the summer.

Among those from Portland are Fred A. Murray and wife who are camped in the Tent City.

G. A. Bryant of Forest Grove has pitched his tent near the hotel. He is fitting up a photograph gallery. He expects his family this week.

Mrs. E. P. Starnes of Bay City and her sister Miss Fisher of Portland who is visiting her, spent Sunday at Bar View. They were accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Holt of Portland, and Miss May Zedler of Ft. Wayne, Ind., relatives of theirs.

Chris and Louis Willey of Beaverton were inhaling the ocean breezes at Bar View this week.

L. R. Stiger is a Portland guest of Mabel Jackson. He is employed at the N. W. Steel Works.

Emil Helleboeck and family are camped here from Idaville.

Miss Amanda Reeves is here from McMinnville, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Hoffman.

H. Wambagans and Harry Gray crossed over from Dayton, Oregon, the first of the week in their automobile. They were accompanied by Mrs. Wambagans and Mrs. Hilbert who will occupy the Jay Snyder cottage till August first.

James Seidow and wife left Wednesday for Grays Harbor, Wash., to visit friends and relatives. James is one of the Life Saving Crew.

H. C. Carlson, a mail clerk from Portland, spent Sunday with his wife and son who are camped in the tent city.

E. Iasonson, wife and children and O. A. Nelson and family accompanied by Miss Tschida (ing) compose a party who visited in from Astoria, Oregon, for a week's stay.

A. J. Sullivan and wife in company with W. J. Adams and wife and daughter Miss Helen arrived Monday from Bala, Idaho, to spend a month at the beach.

Dr. and Mrs. Kamus and children accompanied by Mrs. Garton, a sister of the Doctor, arrived Sunday from St. Johns, Oregon, and opened their cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wingate and Victor Nemyer and wife and son are here from Portland, stopping at the Carter cottages.

Among those registered at The Hewitt are Mrs. Dr. H. L. Toney and children and R. H. Grover and wife from McMinnville, H. H. Volheim, Frank Barrett and W. L. Tooke Jr., from Dallas, Or.; J. F. Yergen, wife and children from Hubbard, and W. F. Hartmann and wife and children, Miss Ethel Klison and Mrs. Lila A. Bayne from Forest Grove.

At Villa Camp the following have registered during the past week: Hazel D. Bitch, Lancaster, Ohio; J. C. Schulmerick and wife, Banks, Or.; Hugh L. Ball, Yokohama, Japan; Minnie M. Eaton and Ida Becker, Lents, Oregon; Mrs. M. Biggar, J. W. Biggar and Agnes Biggar from Corning, Iowa; Ethel Britch, Roy Sloeum, Eva Sleum; A. P. Akin and wife, M. D. Lindeman, Harry Eaton; J. M. Foster and wife and Prue Foster from Portland.

A request has been made that a life line be placed in the serf for the benefit of the bathers. The suggestion is a good one and should be taken up by the proper committee.

Carl Arnold, who left recently was employed on the jolly here, left Monday for Portland on business.

The drift by the Life Saving Crew Tuesday morning was witnessed by many visitors, some of whom had never seen a life saving drill before. The crew made a fine showing in their life boat.

GARIBALDI

Garibaldi, Or., July 14th, 1915. Arthur Paquet is home again from Tillamook to spend a few weeks re-arranging on the beach.

Mrs. J. E. Mann has just returned from Portland where she spent three weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Jessup and Mrs. G. S. Cooper are Portland guests of J. J. Hedrick and family.

The sewing and sewing club of the Garibaldi Public School met at the home of Miss Powell Tuesday afternoon. County agricultural agent was present and gave a very interesting demonstration in fruit raising.

Through petition the patrons of the school have secured their interest in the erection of a play shed on the school grounds. This is something that is greatly needed during the rainy winter months and the school board say they will at once get busy.

John Benson, manager of the store of Nelson & Co., Tuesday suffered an attack of paralysis in his arm.

A new garage is being built for J. J. McCormack.

HARMONY

A movement is on foot among the settlers on the old Notarts road to re-open this thoroughfare for traffic again. This is of much interest to Harmonians and others, as it will shorten the way to this place of enjoyment about four or five miles. It is understood 25 to 30 volunteers will clear the road of fallen trees and other obstructions as soon as a highway is over.

Mrs. D. P. Hopkins received a message from Blanks advising her of the seriousness of her brother, Mr. Stephen of that place. She left Tillamook Tuesday afternoon to see him.

D. H. Hopkins is on the sick list but at the time of this writing is improving.

Mrs. Phillips who is going to teach school here, has moved to Notarts where she is going to teach until our school starts, which is on Labor Day, Sept. 5.

FAIR GROUND IMPROVEMENTS

Many improvements have been made at the fair grounds this season. A new exhibit building 72x72 ft. has been erected and an addition to the stock sheds 45x100 has been built.

The new exhibition building will be used for the school exhibits and other special exhibits. A stage has been erected in this building and seating capacity arranged for so that entertainments can be held therein. Eight school districts have promised to place exhibits: Tillamook, Bay City in third class; Beaver, Garibaldi, Fairview, and Maple Leaf, second class; Portland No. 5 and Riverdale, first.

Four Riverdale organizations have notified their intention of placing exhibits: Orestown, Cloverdale, Nestucca and Fairview.

Nearly 150 babies have been entered for the better babies contest.

Two special individual farm exhibits have also been promised.

The live stock accommodations will now care for twenty head of horses and 100 head of cattle. The fair dates are Aug. 24 to 27.

POTATO SCAB IS REPORTED

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, July 13. (Special)—Spongospora, scab potato disease, is reported in Tillamook County by the department of plant pathology of the agricultural experiment station. This is apparently the first time that this potato disease has been reported west of the Rocky Mountains.

The potatoes in which the disease was first found were grown on a farm in a rather isolated section of the coast country, the original seed of which was said by the owner to have been introduced from an eastern state 12 to 15 years ago and that no new seed has since been introduced on his farm.

The tubers first found affected with this disease came from a shipment made to the department for experimental study.

SUICIDE AT GARIBALDI

Special to Herald, July 16th: Frank Forsblom, age 38, was found dead in his cabin at Garibaldi this morning at 9 a. m. by Andrew Peterson his neighbor.

Deceased was a fisherman and had started to fish on Wednesday, but this morning did not put in an appearance so Mr. Peterson went to his cabin to see him and looking in the window found him lying on the floor in a pool of blood with a revolver by his side. The corner was at once notified. It is supposed that he is a suicide.

Forsblom, who has sailed a great deal settled at Garibaldi about 12 years ago. He was well liked and was a good hard working man. It is said that he had been acting queer for a few days past and had been drinking some lately. However, previous to this time he had not been drinking for over a year.

MILL AT BRIGHTON BEGINS OPERATION

Wholesaler-Reporter: The lumber mill of the Brighton Lumber Company resumed operation last week after having been idle for the past six months. No large orders are coming in at the present time, but the lumber is being cut and stacked to dry for shipment in the fall. It is not definitely known how long the mill will run but it is expected that the job of filling the yards will take at least two or three months.

As soon as the jetties at the mouth of the bay is completed enough to allow vessels of deep draft to enter the harbor which will be early this fall, the mill will then run to its full capacity. Such good water facilities will enable the Brighton Lumber Company to better meet the competition of other Pacific Coast mills. At present, the prices do not warrant the shipping of lumber by rail.

If you will bring us your prescriptions we'll fill them right

To fill a prescription right a drug store must first have the RIGHT KIND of preparations. Ours are pure and TESTED. Then knowledge and care must be used. Strychnine and Quinine LOOK alike, but don't ACT alike. Our registered pharmacists KNOW HOW to fill prescriptions and we VERIFY everyone before we send it out.

This is why we DESERVE our drug business.

CHAUTAQUA NEWS

The Chautauqua attractions for Wednesday and Thursday came up to our expectations in every way. The Hungarian orchestra was certainly a great delight and pleasure to our music-loving people. The classical and lighter violin music were all rendered with great care. We like the instrumentation of this orchestra, which was composed mostly of stringed instruments. The waves of melody and harmony that were produced simply entranced us at times. Every one was sorry when it came time for the Hungarian orchestra to leave.

Marion Ballou Fink, cartoonist, by her splendid landscape productions and appropriate talks held her audience well. She made good in every way. We consider her part of the program a real treat.

Arthur A. Franzke lectured on the "Spirit of the Rockies" on Wednesday evening, and on Thursday afternoon on "The Matchless Book." The first lecture dealt with our present legislative methods and we believe, as we afterwards heard many express themselves, Mr. Franzke told a whole lot of truth. He gave the people something to think about in regard to legislative affairs. He is in favor of the commission form of government, when he claims should replace our present legislative system. The address on the "Matchless Book" was a splendid summing up of years of study regarding the Bible and was indeed interesting.

Miss Bergh, the beautiful young Norwegian singer, who accompanied the Hungarian orchestra, rendered some beautiful selections. She has a most pleasing voice and her efforts were greatly appreciated.

The reader, Marietta La Dell of Toronto gave a few selections on Thursday evening. Her imitation of a baby is certainly of the best. She is one of the attractions today.

Buckner's Southern Jubilee Singers and Senator Buckett are the main attractions today and tomorrow.

In order to get the Hungarian orchestra to its next chautauqua it was necessary to hire a special train to take them to Portland.

MRS. ROBT. LANSING

Mrs. Robert Lansing, wife of the man who succeeded William Jennings Bryan as Secretary of State.

A Record of Profits.

He (puzzling over wife's checkbook)—Why, my dear, I can't make head or tail out of these stubs. They foot up more than you ever had in bank. She—Oh, that's all right, dear. I just used the stubs to keep tabs on what the things were before they were marked down, so as to show how much I made; don't you see?—Pittsburgh Press.

Farlorn Hope.

Bride thair crying—Oh, dear, something terrible has happened! My whole Sunday's roast has burnt and it cost me 3 marks! (Suddenly illuminated by a brilliant idea) But, say, my dear, we have a fire insurance, haven't we?—Lustige Blaetter.

EDISON WILL HEAD BOARD OF INVENTORS

Civilian Board to Work Ways to Perfect Fighting Machinery is Plan.

Washington—The United States has the greatest combination of the world on the civilian board of development and research in the navy department.

Formal acceptance of Thomas Edison as head of an advisory board of civilian inventors and engineers in a new bureau of invention and development in the navy department was signed by Secretary Daniels at the White House, the famous inventor's personal representative.

In a letter to Edison, Secretary Daniels outlined his plan for an advisory board of civilian inventors to aid navy in working improvements meet the changed conditions of warfare as demonstrated in the European conflict. The secretary is especially interested in the development of airplanes and submarines. In meeting the change in conditions of warfare as brought about by the machine, he wrote that he was interested in Edison's inventive genius and the navy toward the development of our country by their inventions.

Mr. Edison having consented to take up the task presented to him by the navy department, Secretary Daniels is preparing to invite others and noted inventors and technical experts to join in the work. He would not see reason to a dozen names suggest to him, declaring he was sure to know the other members of the advisory board and their work had been reviewed.
