PRAYER OF A HORSE.

By direction of the Police Commissioner of New York there is posted in every stable where police horses are kept a card of which the following is a copy:
To Thee, My Master, I Offer my prayer:

Feed me, water and care for me and when the day's work is done, provide me with shelter, a clean dry bed and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort. Talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins. Pet me sometimes, that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you.

Do not jerk the reins and do not whip me going up hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you mean, but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me, and if I fail to do your bidding, see if there is not something wrong with my harness or feet.

Examine my teeth when I do not eat. I may have an ulcerated tooth and that, you know is very painful. Do not tie my head in an unnatural position or take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my tail.

And finally, Oh, my master, when

BAY CITY TRIMS HALTOMS. RED MEN ALSO RAN

Haltom's Invincibles met their first real Waterloo in the Tillamook County League Sunday when they failed to connect with Patterson's slow ball. Patterson who is a recent addition to the Bay City aggregation, had the league leaders whiffing at the strong northwest wind for nine weary innings allowing an occasional hit, which with a few passes and errors gave Tillamook 6 scores. Blanchard pitched a fine game but was given no support which accounts for the 8 to 6 score against him.

The Red Men lost to Beaver 10 to 2. The early part of the game promised to be an uninteresting session. The Indians as usual were slow getting started and in the first three innings Beaver got 10 scores. In the remaining seven frames not a Beaver got just first base, but the locals were only able to earn two runs off of Johnson's delivery.

Next Sunday Haltom's will play Beaver, and Bay City will meet the Indians on the local diamond. This will be a game worth seeing as the Redmen are determined to muss up Bay City's winning streak.

my youthful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner to be slowly tortured and starved to death, but do thou, my master, take my life in the kindest way and your God will reward you here and hereafter. You may not consider me irrelevant if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a stable. Amen.

Chautauqua Closed Last Saturday.

Senator Burkett and Buckner's Jubilee Singers Attractions on Closing Days. Good Crowds.

Tillamook's first annual Chautauqua is a thing of the past. It proved to be just what we expected, viz: a week of feasting on good things. The Chautauqua was a success in every way, financially and otherwise, and President C. J. Edwards of the local committee and those who assisted him deserve much credit for the success of the undertaking. Some of the ladies were tireless in their endeavors and worked themselves almost sick in their efforts to make the affair a success.

Sixty of our representative citizens have signed up to back the Chautauqua for another year. Now that our people understand and realize the significance of the Chautauqua it will no doubt in the future receive more general support.

Senator Burkett's address on Friday evening was one of his human interest talks as he expresses it. The majority of Chautauqua speakers during the past fifteen years have devoted their talents towards criticisms and reforms in legislative and municipal affairs. Senator Burkett showed us the opposite side of the picture and caused us to think of the many good things we have to be thankful for in this country. Senator Burkett's Friday evening address was much appreciated.

On Saturday afternoon Senator Burkett delivered an address on government ownership of railroads and the Jubilee Singers entertained both afternoon and evening.
