BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

Chinese marriage licenses were issued in Portland recently in June, July, as a result of the 1913 and 1914 fires.

Harvest has started in Umatilla county, and in this section work the hum of the combine will be heard in every section.

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Lee, of Seattle, and Mrs. Mary Rees, of Corvallis, met at the Albany Chautauqua for the first time in 40 years.

The state industrial accident commission announced that for the week ending July 10 there were 142 accidents in Oregon.

O. Ross, a well known Southern Pacific engineer on the Woodburn-Albany run died suddenly of heart trouble at his home in Albany.

George Avery was acquitted by the jury at Corvallis, who heard his trial on a charge of murdering Will Purdy, by stabbing him with a knife.

Tendleton will add 28 blocks to its paved street area this summer if preparations began by the council are carried to a successful conclusion.

The annual convention of the Native Sons of Washington and Native Sons of Columbia Lumbermen's association closed in Portland beginning Monday and continued until Friday.

More than 100 cases have recently been reported from Dallas by Will Tucker, who is acting as agent for eastern capital who are supplying the demands of French and British army officers.

Three entomologists of London, England visited Forest Grove last week and counseled with Cecil W. Cress, who has charge of a government nursery in insect and grain pests.

Falling into a tub of hot water which had been left on the floor of their home a few days ago from Dallas, the 2 year old son of Mr and Mrs Joe Oliver was scalded so badly that death resulted.

All the leading fraternal orders of the state will be represented at the third annual interfraternal conference of this order to be held at the University of Oregon, Monday, June [illegible] July [illegible].

The Indians of Umatilla county, Oregon, are [illegible] of the [illegible] of the [illegible] of the