SCHOOL NOTES

Friday night at the Guild Hall a very enjoyable reception was given to the new students and new members of the faculty by the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. The program was well arranged and carried out with great success.

This week the Athletic Association held its meeting for the election of officers. The following were elected for the ensuing year.

Pres.—Joe Erickson.
Vice-Pres.—Clifton Martin.
Sec.—Brook Lucas.
Treas.—Delmer Powers.
Manager—Ray Erickson.

The debate class has increased in interest and number, and is now working on the state debate question—“Military Training for Young Men in the United States similar to the Swiss system.”

The following officers were elected this week for the Juniors and Seniors.

Juniors.
Pres.—Mayme La Pollette.
Vice-Pres.—Lucile Rowe.
Sec.—Treas.—Beulah Rogers.
Sergeant-at-arms—Ben Utter.

Seniors.
Pres.—Ray Erickson.
Vice-Pres.—Arlene Burge.
Sec.—Treas.—Marie Hathaway.

Christian Church Notes

Next Sunday will be a special day at the Christian Church for its promotion day in our Sunday school. There are 25 to be promoted from the Cradle Roll in the Primary Dept. Promotions will be made in all classes and departments up to the Intermediates. We expect 250 in attendance. The morning sermon subject will be: “The Church's School.” The evening subject: “Temptation.” Christian Endeavor services will begin at 6:30 p. m. and the church services at 7:30. Public invited.

Presbyterian Church Notes

Communion will be observed next Sunday morning at 11. All the local members of the church are expected to be present, and join with the pastor in an earnest invitation to the people of the community who are without their church home to join them in this impressive and helpful service. The sacramental address will be on the subject “The Finished Work.” A popular service is planned for the evening at 7:30 with a message of interest for all young men and women with the subject—“Royal Ambition.”

A young people's meeting will be held at 6:30, in view of organizing a Y. P. S. C. E.

The Sunday School is steadily growing. Old classes are being enlarged and new ones formed. Provision is made for all ages for a thoughtful study of the Bible, of which, in view of life and the future none can afford to be ignorant.

The Guild Hall was the scene of a delightful event last Saturday, when Miss Fay Hill, with competent assistants, entertained her class of girls. The decorations were carried out with pleasing effect, the main room in red and green, and the table in pink. Refreshments, games and a liberal supply of merry hearts contributed to a happy afternoon for all. It was a creditable affair that sets the pace for other classes and organizations, and reveals a fine quality of class leadership. Many such social good times are being anticipated for the near future.

Watch for announcements and particulars of the Ladies' Guild reception and social for Friday evening of next week. Everybody will want to attend, for it is well known that the ladies will be there with the goods.

PARLETTE ON THE PLATFORM

Mr. Parlette will lecture here on Friday evening, Oct. 29th instead of Monday October 25, as first announced. The great demand for his services made the change necessary.

Ralph Parlette has been called a preacher, a poet, a philosopher, a humorist, an orator. He is not an entertainer, nor a “funny man,” but keeps his audience laughing and crying by turns. He is absolutely unique, different from any other speaker on the platform. He talks out of his wide experience in life. He laughs and cries with the crowd. He has a way of making a wonderful picture of everyday life, and then hanging some teaching to it that no hearer can ever forget.

Every address is in reality a sermon. People in every audience say “I never knew a lecture could be so interesting.” People say, “I never laughed so much in my life,” and yet Parlette doesn't try to be funny. He is funny. His good cheer, his quaintness, his personality illuminate every utterance. He has been called “The Serious Humorist,” “The Man Richer than Rockefeller,” “The Master Painter of the Commonplace,” “A Preacher in a Thousand Pulpits,” “The Humorist who Helps Humanity,” “Prince of Pen and Platform,” “The Orator of Good Cheer,” “The Philosopher of Joy,” “The Helper to Happiness.”

PARCEL POST SOCIAL

We earnestly invite the public to remember our Parcel Post Social on Friday evening, Oct. 9th, at the Guild Hall. There will be an interesting musical program given by some of the best talent in the city. Games will be indulged in and light refreshments served.

Last but not least Uncle Sam has mailed you all a package and requests you to be present to make your own selection, for many useful articles, goodies, and oh well; things to numerous to mention will be contained therein.

Everyone are invited.
Presby. Ladies Guild.

WIRELESS TRANSCONTINENTAL TELEPHONY

Special to Herald:
San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 29, '15.
Mr. J. J. Carty, of New York City, Chief Engineer of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, who is now in San Francisco, at the St. Francis Hotel, officially confirmed that Mr. Theodore N. Vail, the President of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company seated at his desk in New York City, today talked by wireless telephone with Mr. Carty, who was listening at Mare Island, San Francisco. Others who listened to the conversation were Lieut. Commander Sweet, U. S. N.; Mr. Allen H. Babcock, consulting Engineer of the Southern Pacific Co.; Chief Electrician Peterson of the U. S. Naval Radio station; Mr. Arnold, Mr. Griswold and several other engineers of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. Mr. U. N. Bethel, Senior Vice-president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.; Mr. J. I. Waterberry, one of the company's directors, and Mr. Gherardi, one of Mr. Carty's staff, also spoke from Mr.

A LIVE WIRE AND A GOOD TILLAMOOK BOOSTER

Fred M. Rowley, special agent for the Equitable Savings and Loan Association of Portland, left Tillamook Wednesday morning enroute to Salem where he will attend the State Fair. After the close of the fair he expects to spend a few days in Southern Oregon shooting China Pheasants. After a sojourn of some 10 days he will again return to Tillamook and remain here for some time.

Mr. Rowley is a good booster for Tillamook and evidence of this lies in the fact that he took with him several Young America cheeses.

It is his intention to cut the cheese into samples and distribute these samples among his many friends and relatives at Portland. He thinks Tillamook cheese is the very finest cheese on the market and such being the case he wants to boost Tillamook County's main product by doing all he can to get people in the habit of calling for and using nothing but Tillamook cheese. He hopes to get the traveling men in line and have them ask for Tillamook cheese at all hotels wherever they are served apple pie. He thinks a “cheese day” would be a good thing to inaugurate as other towns have set aside a certain day each year for the boosting of their main product, and it seemed to him that a cheese day would be an excellent way to advertise Tillamook cheese.

O. I. C. SWINE

I have some choice young pigs for sale, both sexes, the kind that mature very young. One of my herd boars weighed 620 lbs. at 18 months old. My hogs have won ribbons at county and state fairs. Phone or write for prices.

JOE DONALDSON

R. F. D. No. 1, Tillamook

Vail's office by wireless telephone to Mr. Carty, and others present with him. Mr. Carty recognized the voices of all three of the gentlemen and exchanged with them numerous questions and answers, which was heard by all of those present at the Radio station at Mare Island.

Prior to these wireless messages from New York, a large number of wireless telephone messages were received from the Naval radio station at Arlington, Virginia. Among those that talked to the party at Mare Island station from the Arlington, Virginia, station, were Capt. Bullard, Chief of the Radio service of the U. S. Navy, Colonel Sam Reber of the U. S. Army, Dr. S. B. Jewett, Prof. John Mills, and S. A. Stevenson of Mr. Carty's staff.

Words, phrases and sentences were heard from all of these by the listeners at Mare Island, notwithstanding the fact that the “static” disturbances were of unusually violent nature. Mr. Vail's conversation from New York was carried by wire to the Naval station at Arlington, Virginia, where it was connected to the wireless telephone system of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, which was employed in the demonstration.

Mr. Carty stated that the results achieved here, outdistanced anything before accomplished. Mr. Carty states that this feat of talking across the continent is recognized by the experts as being much more difficult than talking across the Atlantic, for transmission over water is much easier than over land, particularly in view of the formidable mountain ranges to be crossed on the continent. Telephone messages, Mr. Carty says, were transmitted with success, from Arlington, Virginia, to the Isthmus of Panama, where they were received at the Government radio station by the Naval officers in charge, who telegraphed back their contents.

Talking across the Atlantic, by means of this new system is now but a matter of installing the necessary apparatus. This would have been done, were it not for the disturbed conditions in Europe, which require all wireless stations constantly to be used for military and naval purposes.

When asked what would be the limit of this new system of his company, Mr. Carty stated that he had no doubt whatever when the necessary apparatus was installed that it would be possible to talk from New York to Tokio, Japan, using the transcontinental lines to San Francisco and wireless across the Pacific.

for our town and county, he said. With our vast amount of Oregon's very best dairy land, and the millions of feet of the best spruce timber at our very door which now is in such great demand for aeroplane stock, this together with the beautiful beaches so close at hand, he can't see a thing in the world to hinder Tillamook from doubling its present population within the near future.

TILLAMOOK COUNTY WINS

Word from J. H. Dunstan, who, with others is looking after Tillamook County exhibits at the State Fair this week, states that Tillamook County took first prize for having the best exhibit.

Tillamook County Schools secured fourth prize.

The Oregonian on commenting on the county exhibits at the State Fair said on Tuesday:

As the only coast county represented, Tillamook's booth is winning much favorable comment. Aside from a beautiful display of grasses and grains, giant salmon, great ocean crabs and other sea products are here to amaze the inland visitor. In a separate booth Tillamook County shows in excellent fashion the great cheese and dairy industry which has been developed.

The judges of the county agricultural exhibits plainly have a difficult task ahead of them, for each of the 16 counties entitled to compete has put forth remarkable efforts to make a good display. In addition to Marion not in the competition, the counties having exhibits of agricultural products in the new pavilion are: Tillamook, Multnomah, Clackamas, Washington, Lane, Polk, Linn, Benton, Morrow, Union, Wallowa, Jackson, Columbia, Gilliam, Umatilla and Malheur.

School Boys Send Cooking to Fair. The greater part of the cooking and baking sent by the pupils of the Tillamook Schools to the State Fair at Salem, was done by boys.

William Monroe, of the 7th grade, entered a cake which Miss Ueland pronounced extraordinarily good, and four boys of the 4th grade, Ernest Dodge, Clay Myers, Leslie Gray and Herschel Laughlin, each entered bread.

Cheese Score at State Fair.

Just as we go to press a message from Salem says the cheese scoring at the State Fair was as follows: Hugh Barber, Fairview, 95½ points; Ballenstein, Monmouth, 95; H. Thomas, Cloverdale, and H. Haugen, Elwood, 94½; Unknown name, 94; A. Schmelzer, Red Clover, tied with three other Tillamook factories, 93.

Tillamook Wins Prize at National Dahlia Show.

Tillamook County was represented at the National Dahlia Show in Portland last week. J. H. Dunstan taking out 12 boxes of those flowers, contributed by Mrs. L. M. Zaddach, four boxes; Mrs. J. H. Dunstan, three boxes; Mrs. C. B. W. F. one box;

Fred C. Baker, four boxes. These were entered in the amateur class by Mrs. Dunstan, and won the first prize for the best display outside of Portland.

We understand that Mrs. F. Zaddach was considered in the professional class, as she sells bulbs, consequently her splendid assortment of dahlias were not included in the amateur display from Tillamook.
