The "Wonder Car"

One-Man Mohair Top

The new Maxwell is equipped with a one-man real mohair top. It can be raised or lowered almost in an instant, by one person.

There are no top bows near the driver's seat.

This gives the driver and passenger beside him an unobstructed view on both sides of the car.

The storm curtains are quick-adjustable.

We are waiting to take you for a test ride in the car that has broken all low "First-Cost" records, and is breaking all low "After-Cost" records.

"Informal complaints" to the Commission indicate that the annually recurring failure of transportation facilities known as "car shortage" is again appearing. The Commission urges on all shippers and all carriers that close attention to methods of loading, unloading, moving, and promptly returning to use the cars now available will go far toward making the present supply of cars sufficient for all purposes.

In order that the business of the country may go forward without interruption, the Commission urges shippers, both individually and through their associations, to co-operate to secure the prompt and full loading of cars and their prompt release. One of the chief causes of failure of car supply in past seasons has been the unnecessary detention of cars by careless shippers. In the general public interest, shippers should endeavor to release cars at the earliest possible moment without regard to free time given by the tariffs.

All efforts of the shippers will be unavailing, however, unless the carriers also use extraordinary measures to eliminate all delays chargeable to them. The failure of car supply is usually a failure of car movement. The congestion of terminals is ever present feature at times of such failure. The Commission therefore urges carriers to make every possible endeavor to improve their methods of operation of terminals in order that cars may move promptly. Also company material should be unloaded with same dispatch that is required of shippers.

The Commission is moved to make this appeal by its desire to save both shippers and carriers from the losses which are occasioned by failures of car supply and by its knowledge that measures such as are here suggested have operated in past seasons to save all concerned from heavy losses.

S. P. SUEDE

The S. P. Co. is now being sued for $30,000 by the parents of the children who were killed near Creswell last April when the driver of the auto in which they were riding drove directly in front of the Shasta Limited.

The accident was terrible and the parties afflicted have once interest sympathy but here again we have the old story, death at a railroad crossing. The track was perfectly straight for a mile in each direction and yet a man drove out of his gate without looking in either way and right onto the track in front of an express train.

What use are whistles, bells and safety first signals when people do an act like this? It is a terrible object lesson to others—be careful on railroad crossings.

AN OPEN LETTER TO YOU

I AM COMING to your town to lecture on Friday evening, Oct. 29th in the High School Auditorium. I want you to attend—not for what I can get out of YOU but for what you can get out of Me. I shall not get a cent more or less whether you hear me or not. The good committees of your own town run the Lyceum and Chautauqua to bring good things to town, and they contract to pay me in full, even if they have to go down in their own pockets.

BUT I WANT YOU THERE! Every time I lecture I hear people afterward say, "I do wish every person in the community could have heard it." "Oh, I would give anything to have my boys and girls hear that!" I am getting so tired of hearing that AFTERWARD. I want to get the word to every person BEFOREHAND!

I want the people who like lectures, and the people who "don't like lectures." I want you folks down town in the evening. You folks in the barber-shops, you in the pool parlors, in the hotels, in the "movies." I want you folks at home "too tired to go anywhere."

I want to show you that a lecture can be just as entertaining as an entertainment, just as funny as a show, and just as helpful as a sermon.

If you will come and then will come to me and say you don't think you got your money's worth, I shall see that your money is refunded.
