

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

A recent rabbit drive at Silver Lake netted 3549.

For the 11 months of this year Marion county has expended $281,972 on its roads.

Property losses, as a result of a 10 days' storm on Tillamook Bay, will amount to about $38,000.

Forty-one carloads of cattle, sheep and hogs left Klamath county last week on a "stock special."

The recent fall of snow throughout central Oregon is reported to have been a boon to the farmers.

All grain sown this fall in the valley of the middle fork of the upper Willamette is up and looking fine.

For the first time this year Portland postoffice receipts show a gain over the corresponding month of 1914.

Divorces in Multnomah county total approximately two-thirds of the number of marriages during the first ten months of 1915.

The railroad commission reports that sufficient freight cars are now being provided to take care of the needs of shippers.

Four hundred and fifty persons attended the "fathers and sons" banquet of the tenth annual old boys conference of western Oregon at Salem.

A campaign is under way to induce the Hood River county board to make an appropriation of $2000 for the support of the experiment station next year.

A club has been organized in Independence, consisting of about 40 business and professional men, to uphold the city along economical, social and civic lines.

Klamath sportsmen are considering providing feeding grounds for wild ducks and geese on the marshes south of Klamath Falls, where now there is dense tule growth.

Five year contracts are being made with farmers to raise beets for a beet sugar mill at Medford. From $4.25 to $5 a ton is offered for the beets delivered at the mill.

Every county in Oregon, 23 states and 14 foreign countries are represented among the 1749 students which have registered at the Oregon agricultural college this year.

Pearl Peterson, 17-year-old daughter of Edward Peterson, committed suicide by shooting herself at the Peterson home near Manitu in the southern part of Clackamas county.

Three thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight persons, within 1000 of the census population of Oregon City, rode in the new municipal elevator in its 15 hours of operation Saturday.

Secretary of State Oicott has appealed to motor vehicle owners and chauffeurs to speed up their applications for licenses so that a heavy congestion early in the year may be avoided.

Six of the 13 applicants for admission to the practice of dentistry in the state of Oregon were passed at the regular semi-annual session of the Oregon state board of dental examiners, held in Portland.

The 2400-acre Clover Creek Stock ranch located in Clover Creek valley, near North Powder, has been sold by C. B. Mays to C. B. Higgenbotham, of Echo, Umatilla county, at a reported consideration of $49,000.

A new bridge to cost $200,000 has been agreed upon by the commissioners of Marion and Polk counties. It will be thrown across the Willamette river at Salem. It will be of steel and concrete construction.

The K. L. Gold mining property, consisting of 11 claims in the Baker district of Oregon, has been taken over under lease and bond by Spokane investors, and plans have been completed for equipping the mine with mill and shipping facilities.

The department of journalism of the University of Oregon has in its possession a Washington hand press, which the Oregon State Historical society, after an exhaustive investigation of all the evidence, reports to be the first press ever used west of the Rocky mountains.

Five members of the stock judging team of the Oregon agricultural college, together with one alternate and Professor E. L. Potter, left Corvallis Monday for Lewiston, Idaho, to compete with teams from other colleges in the northwest in judging farm animals at the fair stock show.

George L. Huffman, a farmer living south of Prairie City, despondent, while Mrs. Huffman was in another part of their home, called his three daughters, aged 4, 6 and 8 years, into a bedroom. He then gave each of them a tablet containing cyanide of potassium taking one himself, and within 10 minutes all four were dead.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Chubb has just published the most complete official directory yet compiled by the department of education. The directory lists all the schools of Oregon in which more than one teacher is employed, districts are arranged alphabetically and the names and addresses of the teachers and school clerks together with much information regarding enrollment of pupils, etc., are given.

H. A. WILLIAMS CAN QUALIFY

H. A. Williams, who was nominated at the caucus on Monday evening for councilman from the First Ward can qualify for the office, as he is a property owner and has real estate in his own name here.

The last issue of the Headlight stated that Mr. Williams could not qualify because he did not own real estate. This statement was not correct. Mr. Williams has a deed to the S 1/2 of lots 7 and 8 in block 4, Thayer's Fifth Addition to Tillamook City. Record of the deed can be found on page 543, book 28, records and deeds in county clerk's office.

HARMONY

Despite stormy weather Sunday school was well attended, 34 being present. Seven coming from South Prairie.

At the school meeting held Saturday a 5 mill tax was voted for the district. Another meeting will be held Friday, the tenth of Dec. for the purpose of electing a clerk. The present incumbent, Elmer Hopkins intends leaving this locality.

The spruce grove on the school grounds is being topped. Several of the trees have been uprooted during the recent storm.

P. Erickson lost a good cow recently, condemned by the authorities on account of tuberculosis for which he is to receive the sum of $25.

Mrs. Wilson of Cloverdale visited with Mrs. E. Hopkins Monday.

O. A. and E. G. Krebs were in the city Thursday to hear Prof. Larson's talk on "Drainage of Tillamook Lands."

SCHOOL NOTES

Members of the first five grades of the schools have sent five cases of donations to the Boys and Girls Aid Society in Portland, as well as a number of small contributions of money.

Most of the donations were in the form of canned fruit and vegetables, but a number brought useful clothing and other things and quite a number contributed pennies and nickles toward making a happy Thanksgiving for the homeless children in the Portland institution.

Mr. Reed is back at school, altho with his left arm in a sling and still showing visibly the effects of the severe accident which recently befell him.

Mrs. Mabel Goynne has been unable to attend school this week on account of severe illness. Miss Lelia Drew has substituted for her.

The various Parent and Teacher Conferences have recently been held in the various schools. The following are given:

Nov. 27 - The first five grades of the schools.

Nov. 28 - The first five grades of the schools.

Nov. 29 - The first five grades of the schools.
