GENERAL KUROPATKIN

General Kuropatkin, of Russo-Japanese war fame, reported in command of the Russian army which will attack Bulgaria.

ALLIES DEMANDS SATISFIED

Safety of Anglo-French Expeditionary Forces Said to Have Guarantee.

London.—The foreign office states no Greek ships are being seized or held up in the ports of the United Kingdom and that no blockade of Greek ports has been instituted or is in force.

The universal deduction is that the Greek government has satisfied the British demands submitted by Earl Kitchener, secretary for war, who was in Athens last week, and has furnished guarantees of the safety of the Anglo-French expeditionary forces.

It is believed that the announcements from Athens concerning a commercial blockade of Greece were premature, in that they presented the provisional intentions of the entente allies as accomplished facts.

The purpose, it was said, was to induce Greece to guarantee immunity to Serbian, French and British troops, which might be forced into Greek territory, from hostile action by the Greeks.

President to Be Married in December.
