Single person, $1,000; Head of a family, or marired person living with husband or wife, $2,500, unless the net income is in excess of $5,000, in which case the exemption is only $2,000; for each dependent under 18 years of age, $400.

Do not confuse these exemptions with the necessity of filing returns if the net income of a married person is $2,000 of the head of a family (not married) is $1,000.

In other words, a single person claiming exemption as the head of a family must file a return if his net income is $1,000 or more, notwithstanding the fact that as head of a family he is entitled to an exemption $2,300 as well as $400 for each dependent minor.

To help fill out their income tax reports, Mr. Turner, from the internal revenue office, will be in Tillamook February 1 to 4. Those wishing help in this matter should consult Mr. Turner during this time.

All of the men were in the engine except Thomas, the brakeman, who was on the flatcar. The seven men in the list of dead and injured were the only persons on the train.

The train left the trestle on a curve. Subsequent investigation showed that or some unknown reason the ties and rails of the track had slipped bodily from the trestle work, throwing first the engine and then the car into the anyon. The engine fell partly in the water, where the fire caused steam which scalded the men imprisoned under the wreckage.

The scene of the accident was within seeing distance of the camp and men there were able to assist in the escue. One difficult part of their task was jacking up the locomotive so that those of the crew caught beneath might be reached.

The last of the men held prisoners under the wrecked train were not released until almost 6 o'clock, when they were started to Reliance.

The Weist Camp is located near the divide above Reliance.

As masters stand, the Portland high Do Women Read Ads?

We'll Say They Do!

Two Tilamook women were disrusning newspaper advertising. "When I turn to the advertising columns in The Herald," said Mrs. A., "I read them just as carefully as I would a desc: ption of some place where by a ligent searching I might find a sam of money-the cold cash. Furthermore, I am not guided by hat I read at the moment. If I see something offered at a price which I know means money saving, I go to that store with the purpose of buying it and putting it away until my present stock of it is worn out or exhausted. A good bargain is a good bargain any time. I buy ahead when the saving warrants it."

Mrs. B. confeseed that she was not so forward-looking. "My reading of the ads," she said, "is for the purpose of finding where I can get with the greatest econony what I need right now, Somehow I have a feeling that a merchant is always trying to sell me something whether I want it or not. I always make up my mind to buy only what I need and not to yield to the blandishments of the bulletins t bargains. I read and shop for the day only." In effect, Mrs. B. regarded advertisments as temptation. Mrs. A. looked upon them as opportunities. Of the two, Mrs. A. is the more efficient housekeeper. Her u e of the ads is the same that t' nanager of any big business natios of his knowledge and informs in concerning conditions that may be will affect his undertaking in the future. She makes her money go further than Mrs. B. possibly can.

OREGON'S PREMIER CHEESE CENTER MAKES WONDERFUL SHOWING

Tillamook is today the watchword of the entire cheese industry of the United States. Although by no means the greatest producer of causes in the country, the Oregon section today is looked upon as the most successful in the United States, if not in the world. in a word, Triamook is today commanding the greatest premiums for cheese in the entire country. Not only is the Tillamook Creamery association able to secure more for cheese than any other section of the United States, but the scramble for its product has been such that today he premier cheese manfacturing section has practically nothing to in the face of free offering of cheese from 5 to 7 cents a pound below its product, Tillamook has notified local selling interests that no additional supplies are likely to be sent them until at least March 1. While such a condition could scarcely bebelieved under normal conditions this is not the first time that Tiliamook has not only been able to secure a premium over the rest of the United States, but has been able to sell all its products prior to the time of its being ready for deliver.y -Oregon Daily Journal
