LITTLE TALKS WITH OUR BUSINESS MEN

Manager Each of the J. C. Penney store is busily engaged in preparing for the Easter trade. The store is teeming with seasonable new Spring goods. Wearing apparel, for ladies, men and children of the latest approved fashions is now on display. He invites you to inspect this mammoth low-priced showing.

Halton's windows are ablaze with Easter colorings these days. An elaborate background of lavender with appropriate trimmings and furnishings serve to show off the season's latest arrivals in wonderful effect. Next time you pass by, just stop a minute and carefully note the showings. It will be worth your time.

Recher's store is enjoying a phenomenal furniture patronage. New goods continue to arrive daily. Colonial ranges, which this store features, are displayed in all their glory on the first floor. You should see them.

The Bloom Furniture store is a busy place, too, just now. With the arrival of Spring householders seem to turn their attention to home furnishings.

Oil paintings, executed while you look on, have been attracting the passerby in front of the Lamar store this week. Some really clever copies are on display.

New ads this issue includes the radio announcement of the Coast Power Company. Just now radio receiving and sending is all the fad—if its not more than a fad. The company will soon be in a position to supply sets and parts for these wonderful new inventions. You may want one.

Next time you happen down near King & Crenshaw just step in and ask the man about the new Lang range they are going to give away. This is only a tip, but if you need a new range it may prove of value to you.

Williams & Williams, local dealers for the Pennsylvania Vacuum Cord tires, report wonderful mileage success from this line. Columbia batteries are now stocked by this firm. Herald advertising gives further particulars.

EMPIRE MILKING MACHINES

The Recognized Standard

NEARLY every field of endeavor has its recognized standard—one manufacturer's goods that always login up first in your mind when a product of its nature is mentioned.

It's true of cameras, pianos, locks, crackers, speedometers, watches and a host of other products.

And it's true of Milking Machines. Visit the homes of prize winning stock of all breeds, go to the dairy farms whose chief object is the production of large quantities of milk or go to the small farmer who has only a limited number of cows; everywhere you'll find the dominating milking machine to be the Empire.

Complete information from us will place you under no obligation. Come in to see us or ask us to come out to see you at once.
