(Gang) Spring is here!

One-legged Robins, angle worms, new Spring bonnets and baseball chatter are never failing symbols. Each was encountered and each in turn has left its indelible impression on this scribe's (?) state of mind.

Out for a peaceful—if not restful—stroll Sunday we encountered a poor little Robin Red Breast hopping about on one leg. Instantly we saw visions of a purring, prowling Thomas Cat who had better have been placed in a sack and heaved into Hoquiam Slough before his eyes were opened. Then we borrowed and begged a fish in our outfit and started in pursuit of the lowly angle worm. We spaded up two or three gardens—but we got'em. Coming home from a fishing trip (on which we spent in the neighborhood of $14 in preparation, and bagged just one measly little fish) we were confronted with friend wife's annual appeal for a new Spring Bonnet. Set us back 11 plunks. Enough to make a preacher swear. Springtime—hat time. Oh, Bosh! About this time we were fairly disgusted with everything and every person so we made the pilgrimage to the garret and drew out our old trusty baseball bat. Oh, she made us feel better. And what a time we had. Yes, we're in—come on! AUNT IT'S GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING!

Retta, our intype manipulator, has promised to have "Old Retay" (that's our intype) grinding out two volumes an hour from now on—or she wants to know why—
And the boss says he is going to present us with a brand-spinking new typewriter; one that writes what we want to say when we want to say it—
And the chief of police tells me motorists can tear through town now at the rate of 45 per and he'll never say a word—
And Tom Coates says that we don't have to scrape the moss off our shoes and clean up around the yard this year—
And the Hittalitic people, told the boss that they were going to replace every foot of pavement laid in the county that had gone bad—
And the latest from Salem is that the State Legislature is to be abolished; taxes cut in two and the people granted their request for the abolishment of the dozen and one cent seal on new vacationing in Col. H. Cook's berry—
And Mending has promised that every doubter who fought his big fight and every Gah who sailed the ocean blue in result of Fritz' sub-marines, is to be granted a yearly vacation across the pond with all expenses paid by Uncle Samuel—
And the City Council is seriously contemplating reducing the truck license at the suggestion of the South—

OBITUARY

C. A. ELLIOTT

Charles Abram Elliott was born in East Portland on March 21st, 1868 and died at his home on the Kilchis river on March 16th, 1922, being 53 years 11 months and 16 days of age at the time of his departure from this life.

When he was a child of two and one half years, he came with his parents to the Tillamook country, where they located on the Kilchis river, near the present home, so that he was raised and grew to manhood in this county and for forty years saw the wonderful changes which took place with the passing years.

He was married to Mable Brown on June 26th, 1891. To this union three sons were born: Harry Charles Elliott, James Kenneth Elliott, and Donald Brown Elliott.

He leaves besides his wife and three sons, his three sisters; Mrs. Margaret Jennings, Mrs. Cora Ewing and Mrs. C. C. Babbidge. He also leaves his two brothers, William Elliott, and Tracy Elliott. He also had one sister who is deceased.

He united with the Bay City Presbyterian church on Sept. 20, 1895. His father was instrumental in founding this church on June 1st, 1890 and was one of the first elders. He always tried to live a Christian life and desired that his life should show to the world his faith and his religion. If anyone was in need of help or friendship, he was ever ready to respond with his aid and sympathy in the hour of their trouble.

He was a member of the Bay City Lodge of Odd Fellows and the Tillamook lodge of the Woodmen of the World. He was true to his obligations of fraternal brotherhood and service.

During the last year of his life he suffered greatly at times with his malady, but through it all was always patient and cheerful. During the last few days of his life his suffering was so great that he longed for his release from pain that he might enter that city of God where God himself shall wipe all tears from their eyes, neither shall there be any more death for the former things have passed away.

Charles Abram Elliott has gone on before to await the coming of his loved ones on the other shore, but he made the world happier and better because of his having lived in it. He will be greatly missed in his home in his lodge, in his neighborhood, and in the county of Tillamook but his memory and his life will ever live in the hearts of those who knew him.

Besides his immediate family and relatives who mourn his departure, he leaves a host of friends all over the county who mourn the loss of a neighbor, a friend and a brother. He is one not forgotten and is not from the suffering of mortal life and he has entered that heavenly world where suffering never comes.

MARY PURCELL

At her home in Hoquiam, Wash., Mary, beloved wife of John J. Purcell, Mrs. Purcell had been ill for about six weeks and all that loving care and attention could do, was of no avail and she passed peacefully away on the evening of February 18th. Heart failure followed an attack of influenza, was the immediate cause of death. The funeral was held from "Our Lady of Good Help" church where Rev. Father Ryan sang the Requiem High Mass for the repose of her soul. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, attesting the esteem in which Mrs. Purcell was held. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Rinnick & Co. Interment in Hoquiam cemetery.

John J. Purcell at one time resided in this city, where he has many relatives and friends.

MILDRED TILDEN

Miss Mildred Tilden, age 28, died suddenly with pluro-pneumonia at Mohler Monday morning. She was visiting her sister, Irene, when taken ill and lived only a short time. Miss Mildred was born at Bay City and moved with her parents to their home on the North fork 14 years ago where she has since resided.

She was very active socially and was recognized as one of the leading hostesses at social functions in the community. Her activities were all for the betterment of mankind and she led by her many thoughtful and kind deeds and generosity endeared herself to a wide circle of friends. She was a graduate of Union high school and a member of the Nehalem lodge Pythian Sisters.

Deceased is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tilden, four sisters: Mrs. Margaret Stosik Sowble, Ross Toons and Ruth and one brother Howard, all of Nehalem. Funeral services were conducted in the Bay City Presbyterian church, of which she had long been a member Tuesday, Rev. Keating officiating. Interment was made in the Bay City cemetery.

MARY GOODSPEED

Mrs. Mary Goodspeed was born in Canada on June 11th, 1865, and departed this life at Tillamook on March 17th, 1922. Aged 56 years, 9 months, and 6 days.

She was married to Daniel E. Goodspeed on May 23rd, 1882 at Hemlock, Michigan. To this union three children were born: D. Egbert Goodspeed, Mrs. Daise E. Erwin, and Rotta M. Goodspeed, all of Tillamook. She also had three grandchildren, Egbert, Warren and William; sons of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Goodspeed.

Besides her immediate family she leaves one sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Beck, of Clark Mills, Pa. and four brothers all of Hemlock, Michigan.

Mrs. Dan Goodspeed and her husband came to Tillamook county more than 30 years ago and have since that time lived in and near Tillamook. Her husband departed this life some two years ago.

She united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Bay City about 30 years ago and since that time she has lived an earnest consecrated christian life. She became a member of the Tillamook Presbyterian church about three years ago.

Mrs. Dan Goodspeed will be greatly missed not only by her own family and relatives but her host of friends will mourn her loss. She was a friend to all and an enemy to none. She was a regular attendant at church and her presence in the congregation will be missed. If she was absent everyone knew at once that she must be ill, and illness alone kept her from the church during the last few weeks of her life. She has passed on into that other world, but her life and character will be long remembered by those who knew and loved her.

IN MEMORY OF C. A. ELLIOTT.

In the recent death of neighbor Charles Elliott, a member of Alder Camp No. 219 Woodmen of the World has left a deep sadness over our community. Having spent nearly all his life in Tillamook County, he was widely known and greatly loved by all who knew him. It was in the every day experience and every day relations of his home life that neighbor Elliott's kindness of heart and devotion to his family was most gloriously manifested, and it is here he will be deeply missed.

Be it resolved: That we as member of Alder Camp No. 219 Woodmen of the World desire to unite with the widow and children in expressing our deep regret over the death of neighbor Elliott. May they find comfort in the thought that the departed ever held the esteem and love of those who knew him.

Speaking Directly Into the Transmitter

Clearness and distinctness of speech is of course the foundation of a satisfactory telephone conversation.

The transmitter of the telephone is the result of years of study and experimentation by telephone engineers. It is of delicate adjustment and its fullest effectiveness can only be obtained through proper use.

The lips should not be more than an inch from the transmitter, and the voice should be clear, not loud.

Speak directly and distinctly into the mouthpiece. This will mean your satisfaction and that of the person with whom you are talking.
