in a body, similar to the Jersey Jubilee, arriving in this city about six o'clock on the evening of the 1st.

That evening the visitors will be the guests of the Chamber of Commerce at a banquet. The next day, Friday, the visitors will be taken to the farms of the Guernsey breeders and to the several cheese factories. At noon a banquet is to be served at the Grange hall at Fairview, where a business meeting and other matters pertaining to the interests of the Guernsey breeders will be discussed.

On Saturday, the visitors will be taken north as far as Neah-Kah Nie Tverm and Neah Kah Nie mountain, one of the most beautiful and picturesque spots in the county. Here the visitors will be the guests of the people of the north part of the county, who are taking considerable interest in the Guernsey Gaities, and with their usual hospitality, they will serve a banquet and turn out to do everything possible to entertain the visitors.

That takes up the three days time, but should any of the Guernsey Gaities want to stay over another day, there is some talk of taking them to Oceanside on Sunday, where a food luncheon will be served.

The Chamber of Commerce will have its hands full on the 1st of May when it will serve two banquets.
