NEWS OF 24 YEARS AGO FROM OLD HOME PAPER

(From The Tillamook Herald)
April 14, 1898
Eggs were selling in Tillamook at 10 cents per dozen and coal oil 15c per gallon.
P. B. Nicodemus of Bay City is reported as being seriously ill.
Rev. A. G. Griggs has gone to Portland to be absent about ten days.
Miss May Donaldson commenced a term of school at Beaver Monday.
Mrs. Carrie May has assumed the principalship of the Fairview school for the coming summer.

Upon the arrival of the next steamer we shall have a nice line of men's all wool suits to sell at $5.00 per suit, reads Edmund's advertisement.

The schooner Sacramento chartered by Olen and Davies to load lumber at the Pacific Lumber Co.'s mill is now in the bay.

T. H. Handley, G. W. Sappington, J. W. Maxwell, Jasper Smith and Charley Ray are this week attending the Republican State and Congressional conventions.

Emmett Bales leaves for Juneau Alaska about the first of May.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crane died on Wednesday.

It is learned from a reliable source that the new find of coal recently made in lower Nehalem is on the trail between Cannon Beach and the mouth of the Nehalem about six hundred feet distant from the old Battersen house.

Barnegate will soon have a postoffice re-established at that point.

A marriage license was granted Tuesday for the marriage of Michael Peix age 35, and Caroline Sanders age 22.

Died: On Tuesday morning April 17th at the residence of Scott Boatman near this city, Tom Williams from injuries received as the result of an accident.

GARIBALDI ITEMS

D. S. Bales of Balm was in town last week.
School commenced April 4th with Miss Means as teacher.

There are three schooners outside the bar, waiting for a chance to get in.
Ben Hugenbotham and Grant Bayley went to Nehalem to buy a band of cattle.

J. S. Gray, of Nehalem gave an exhibition at the school house Friday afternoon on his gramophone.

SALMONBERRY MAY GET FREIGHT YARD

Both freight and passenger traffic on this branch of the S. P. system have materially increased since the start of the year. Heavy steel was laid last fall and several miles ballast laid to enable the handling of more business.

Several schemes are being unofficially discussed to lower the running time of passenger trains one being the operating of a local from Portland to Cochrane and running Nos. 141 and 142 from there as thru trains. This would permit a considerable saving of time.

With the steady increase in freight Wheeler may again be made a terminal. There is a rumor to the effect that a freight yard may be made at Salmonberry, but no official information has as yet been given out.—Wheeler Reporter.

TWIN CALVES

A cow owned by August Schollmeyer, Nehalem farmer, gave birth to twin heifer calves—a very unusual occurrence—last week. The dam was a grade cow with a record of over 300 pounds of butterfat and the sire a registered Jersey. The calves when a few days old were sold to outside parties.

We feel like an Easter Egg—hard boiled. In this frame of mind we greet you, gang!

Anyhow who wouldn't feel mean and tough after reading the old Herald of 24 year ago and learning that even in those Spanish-American war days eggs were being doled over the counter at 10c per dozen, suits at $5.00 and calico at almost nothing. And now look at 'em. Eggs—good, bad or indifferent—30c. Suits anywhere from $60.00 down and calico selling at the same figure that silk was then. Darn the Kaiser—or are the Democrats to blame?

h-u-n-k
But then in those days of '98—when silk half hose and flappers were not—the hens were depositing their eggs in old barrels, out in the berry bushes and even in old Dobbin's manger. Now they have to be provided with lice-free lights, pedigreed manicured fock masters and a "perfect darling of a hen house" that costs more than the average home we occupied back in '98. 'Snowunder, hen fruit is way up in Gee.

You know we are either going to join the band or buy us a cigar counter. Always having a hankering for band music we hid ourselves up the street Saturday night to listen to Coe, Smith—the calf man, Herman and Ed helping the rest of the boys blow themselves to a few tunes before the K. P.'s started their shindig up at the hall. They played a tune which we liked and then they played another which we liked better and then the man behind the counter over at the Rialto came out with a box of perfectly good Havanas and passed them all around—to the band boys. (We know about a half dozen of them that don't smoke, but they all gobbled up a cheroot or two, which set us to wondering.) Right there we made the resolution appearing at the beginning of this paragraph: we are either going to hop into the band or buy out, Alec, or Frisbie or the Rialto. In one case we would enjoy a cigar without punting up the two-bits; in the other we would enjoy the sensation of treating the band boys, and we rather think it will be the latter, for if there is one thing more blessed than to receive it is TO GIVE—especially in a case of this kind.

Isn't it the bunk, gang, to lay around all winter waiting and waiting until the game warden says we can drop the old spinner into this raffle or that hole and snag out a trout or two for Sunday dinner, and then to have him say that word and then to hike out to that hole or raffle and find it filled to overflowing with a gang of city sports from Scappoose and Portland? We'll say it is and so does Eddie Brenner, Arloy Hoffman, "Pat" Patterson and ever so many REAL sportmen that we hear the boys talk about.

h-u-n-k
There is one thing that Haltom's emporium is lacking and that is a smoking room for ladies. We know, for we invaded the innermost precincts of this modern wearing apparel dispensary only last Saturday and we found this to be a fact. We spoke to Miss Smoek about the matter and she promised to take it up with Frank. Frank says he will talk to E. T. about it someday when he isn't thinking of the Lantz burner so much. Not that we suspicion the ladies of Tillamook of indulging in or practicing the fifty habit but just that we think the store ought to have one like the New Yawk and Philadelphia stores and then, too, for the comfort and convenience of any stray male who happens to drop in with his wife (or someone else's wife) to look over the Palmer garments or the Dougherty millinery line.

h-u-n-k
Well, we'll cease. See you Sunday in the Easter parade.
P. S. What say we all go to church Sunday, gang?
P. S. S. We have decided to go. Don't know which church—we'll make our decision after reading over the announcements. The one that does the least "preaching" and the most "talking" gets our contribution, but we're going to church this Easter or bust a shoe string.

A Farmer Cured of Rheumatism.
"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and told him to use it freely" says C. P. Rayder, Patten Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment; I want it in the house all the time for it cured me."

The Town Cow And Her Owner

Every family that can afford to do so should keep a cow. It's mighty fine to have an abundance of milk and cream and home-made butter.
By packing surplus butter to be used during the time the cow is dry and by feeding skim milk to chickens or calves, any family an easily use all the milk given by one cow.

Hundreds of calves will be knocked in the head at birth during the next few weeks in this vicinity unless saved from such fate by those able to care for and feed them. The farmer cannot keep all of them.
