AND WHAT A WONDERFUL COMBINATION TOO

—Sweaters and dress skirts lend themselves to the display of creative ability and artistic merit perhaps more than any articles of apparel.

—Sport season bids well of eclipsing any previous season according to Dame Fashion whose suggestions that you come here and enjoy with us this feast of beauty and regal splendor.

Sweaters—Tuxedo style sweaters of all wool yarn with very narrow belts, in short length and come in clever two color combinations—black trimmed in white, Henna trimmed in grey; boucle trimmed in brown. Priced at $6.95.

—The hat was beautifully decorated with yellow daffodils and ferns.

Thursday Bridge Club

Thursday Bridge Club which was postponed last Thursday was delightfully entertained Monday by Mrs. J. Groat at her home.

Daffodils were used as decorations in the rooms and for the luncheon table. The favors were small white lilies.

Mrs. Monroe was a guest and Mrs. French substituted for Mrs. Condit who was out of town.

The following members were present: Mesdames Haltom, Robinson, Gilham, Hall, Partridge, Morrison, Mrs. Turnbull, Esch, Carl Schultz, Riechers and Goat.

Enjoyable Party

The Wheeler hotel was the scene of a very enjoyable party Saturday night when Leita Bradley entertained a number of her friends.

Those present were: Mildred Hibner, Katherine McClintock, Verna Gentry, Laverne Craven, Cora Bond, Mae Black, Ruth Darnell, Dorothy Jensen, Leita Bradley, Walter Kelly, George Wann, Stanton Renninger, Billy Vosburg, Reginald Smith, Floyd Essom, Donald McClintock, Herbert Lundy, Robert Cronen and Joe Ross.

Shakespeare Club

Mrs. Oscar Schultz was hostess at the last meeting of the Shakespeare Club which was held at her home near Juno Friday.

The 3rd act of Richard the 3rd was read and at the close of the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

The luncheon table was beautifully decorated with daffodils and Easter lilies.

Wives, the place tables were hand painted.

The guests were Mesdames Strahan, Hall, Carl Schultz, Morrison and Bales.

Members present were: Mesdames Haltom, Koch, Riechers, Craven, Robinson, Groat, Lamb, and Oscar Schultz.

Women's Club Gives Card Party

The Women's Club of Tillamook entertained Tuesday April 18th with a card party at the Auditorium of the city hall, which brought a large attendance.

Progressive "500" was played and Mrs. Louie Loll won highest prize for the ladies, which was a basket of pretty spring flowers and Mrs. Partridge won consolation.

E. F. Schultz won a cigar holder and ash tray as 1st prize for the men, and Thomas Coates won consolation.

Mary Lamar and Florence Stranahan presided over the candy booth, which was very well patronized. They had fudge, marshmallows, peppermints and several other delicious candies for the sweet tooth.

The hall was beautifully decorated with yellow daffodils and ferns.

The proceeds will go to help defray expenses for the entertainment of the Federation of Women's Clubs which will meet here May 30th to June 2nd.
