"Handsome Bride!"

When Maxine Brown was recently married in Washington, President Harding said that she was "the handsomest bride" he had ever seen. Nice arrangement for a bride to put in her wedding book. And notice that's why Maxine is smiling.

The Town Cow And Her Owner

Every family that can afford to do so should keep a cow. It's mighty fine to have an abundance of milk and cream and home-made butter.

By packing surplus butter to be used during the time the cow is dry and by feeding skim milk to chickens or calves, any family an easily use all the milk given by one cow.

Hundreds of calves will be knocked in the head at birth during the next few weeks in this vicinity unless saved from such fate by those able to care for and feed them. The farmer cannot keep all of them.

MONTETH RECITAL

WELL ATTENDED

The John Clair Monteth recital given at the Christian Church last Monday evening, was one of the finest ever given in this city.

Mr. Monteth, baritone, was ably assisted by Mrs. E. E. Koch, accompanist.

Monteth's part of the program was divided in four sections, and his songs were of that class which would appeal to most music lovers.

His beautiful selection was "It is Enough" from the Arslorio "Elijah" by Mendelssohn. This number gave opportunity for a splendid display of technique and voice control which he took full advantage of. Every number was rendered in a most pleasing manner and good taste. Many of the old Irish and English songs, set to the most melodious arrangements were sung with fine effect.

Some of the special numbers were: "Dona" by McGill; "Rolling Down the Hill" by German; "Obstination" by Fantezilles; "I Passed by Your Window" by Brahe; "Lorraine Lorree" by Grand; "When my Caravan has Rested" a gypsy song by Lohr; and "Roses of Picardy" by Wood.

The concert was well attended and we are sure that should we ever have the pleasure of having Mr. Monteth with us again, that a much larger crowd would respond.

Between the first and a second section, Mr. E. E. Koch rendered a violin solo "Souvenir." This number received a rousing encore and Mr. Koch responded by playing Beethoven's Minuet.

Between the second and third sections, Miss E. M. Shull rendered a piano solo "Bagatelle" arranged by List. This was a very difficult number. However it was well rendered and delighted the audience very much. Mrs. Smith was repeatedly encouraged.

The Monday Musical Club is to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment and it is to be hoped that this will not be the last entertainment of this kind.

F. S. Armstrong, the district assessor went to Bay City Wednesday.

Carl Nagel from Wheeler was in Tillamook to see Mr. Steinback Tuesday.

Locking the Garage

Locking the garage after the Ford is stoken is not much more foolish than reading a Safety Deposit Box at the First National after you've lost valuable papers. Why not do it now before you lose them?

Maybe you think you don't need a Safety Deposit Box, but you do if you have negotiable bonds, a will, receipts, or mortgages. And it costs so little.

REPUBLICANS!

Shall Oregon continue to hold the pre-eminence that is now hers? Shall she forge ahead as a leader in the Republican party?

Answer "Yes!"—Vote X 13 for Ralph E. Williams for Republican National Committeeman

In the presidential election of 1916 when there was dissension and division everywhere, Oregon was the only state west of the Missouri river to go Republican. Harmony!

Progressives and Republicans united in giving credit for this remarkable achievement to Ralph E. Williams, national committeeman since 1908.

In recognition of this and other services Ralph Williams was elected vice-chairman, the second highest honor within the power of the Republican National Committee to bestow. It is a position of influence to be reached only by years of faithful and intelligent service.

Ralph Williams is the first committeeman representative from any western state to be elected to the vice-chairmanship.

Ralph Williams is a veteran of the national organization. He stands at the head with the leaders. A new man would, of custom and necessity, stand at the foot with the followers.

Republican leaders, in Congress and out, are Ralph Williams' friends. This friendship means much to Oregon and the Northwest. Without ostentation Ralph Williams enlists the aid of these leaders for the things the Northwest needs from the National government.
