MORE ANSWERS TO MATRIMONIAL.

Nov. 29, 1893.

Miss. Katie Didd,

I seat myself to answer your ad. that I saw in the TALENT NEWS. Now Katie, if you want a man that is not afraid to work, here is your chance. I was raised on a farm in the Willamette valley, am a member of the F. A. and I. U., No. 60, am 27 years old, auburn hair, blue eyes, light complexion and of a loving disposition. I use no tobacco nor whisky, nor play cards.

I have a horse that is worth his weight in gold. Now Katie, please answer me in the next NEWS, if you wish to choose me. If you don't fancy me, please give my address to some other girl you think will.

Yours Truly,

W. B. A.

A Populist, politico-educational club has been organized at Talent when meets in the U. M. L. Hall every Wednesday evening, S. H. Dunlap, president, W. Beeson, secretary. All sorts of questions that have a political bearing are admissible for discussion and it is especially desired and intended that the younger members should take an active part in the meetings. Indorsement of the Omaha platform is the essential requirement for admission to the club.
