A leading Populist of this county writes a very encouraging letter to ye editor and suggests that the News be made a weekly, enlarged, and the subscription price increased accordingly. Many thanks, Bro. W. for your kind words for our little paper. We would like to respond to the suggestion to enlarge, etc. but do not see our way clearly to do so at present. However no man, not even an editor, knoweth what the future may bring forth.

Mrs. M. H. Coleman and Mrs. W. J. Dean returned from their trip to California last Monday. They report a splendid time though the weather was cold and disagreeable most of the time. They would not advise any one to go to the Fair for at least one month yet as everything is topsy turvy now. The California building is the only one fully finished and in which the exhibits are ready.

The News is requested to urge a good turn-out at the Talent Literary society to-morrow evening and that each member be prepared with something for the good of the order as there is no regular program.

The dance at the hall on the 22nd ult was a success socially if not financially.

We are informed that two attempts were made to relieve Joseph Robison of his money during his late stay in Oakland, California, but the pickpockets failed to succeed.

Dr. A. C. Caldwell is the leading Dentist of Ashland and keeps the latest improved Dental Plates for sale at hard times prices. Any one wanting anything in that line will do well to call on him before purchasing elsewhere.

FOR SALE—300 peach trees one year old from bud, including the following varieties: Muir, Crawford, Coolidge's Favorite, Early Alexander. 10 cents each; $8 per hundred.

 A blue cross on the margin of the paper indicates that your subscription has expired. A prompt renewal cheereth ye editor muchly.

MARRIED.

Mr. Jas. Garvin and Miss. Jessie Beeson at the residence of the bride's mother on Sunday, the 18th ult.

Both parties are well and favorably known in this locality and the News joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life. May their honeymoon never wane.

Mr. Eben Carver and Miss. Lily Reams both of Phoenix, were married on the 21st ult.

The Populist meeting held in the hall last evening for the purpose of investigating the charges made by W. H. Breese, N. D. Brophy and Grant Rawlins against several members of the club for "conspiracy," "trickery," pie hunting etc, unfavorable to their political advancement, was, as far as words were concerned a lively "trial." It was in the wee sma hours when the meeting adjourned. The affair was referred to a committee of three from Phoenix who decided that all charges against members for adopting corrupt methods were without sufficient foundation. The full verdict of the committee will probably appear in next week's Record.
