Mr. Parker's Own Letter

I hope that you will help me drive away a dark cloud that was hovering over me and threatening my sacred honor, which is worth all the world to me. I have been holding public office here for a number of years as deputy sheriff. I have a hunting license and I go hunting in open season; and I went hunting on the 20th day Aug. Had very good luck; killed one big buck deer and lawfully tagged the same. W. Brown, Game Warden, accused me of the awful crime of killing a deer unlawfully, and taking the same away from me by force, and without any foundation. A man like Game Warden Brown that don't know any more than to try to take a deer from a deputy sheriff has no right to hold any office, knowing as he did that it was killed in open season and legally tagged. If such a thing as that was allowed there would be no use of getting a hunting license. And I hold that it makes no difference if there are a hundred dogs around your deer after you had dragged it out of the woods; just so they don't run the deer. I told Game Warden Brown that I came out after my deer and if the Court says that it is yours you can have it. And it was decided in Parkers favor. I, Andrew Parker, thank you Jurymen for deciding this case in my favor; it ment much to me. And you done your duty to the very letter; you gave an honest decision and one that you will go home with a clear conscious.
Yours Truly,
Andrew Parker.

PARAMOUNT PICTURE

"Deep Water" Story of Love and Adventure

Maurice Tourneur comes to the front again with a brand new atmosphere setting for his latest feature, "Deep Water." This time it is a light house, the story weaving itself around the construction of the light, with thrilling action during a heavy storm and a ship wreck at night. Many new photographic effects have been cleverly done in this Tourneur offering. Night scenes with the huge beam playing incessantly on the rocky coast, the town and it's people and the scene of the shipwreck, make "Deep Waters" a gripping sea story. In addition, the excellent cast does some fine work. Betty West, the girl of the story, is played by Mr. Tourneur's new find, Barbara Bedford. Jack Gilbert, who adapted the story from F. Hopkinson Smith's book, "Caleb" West, Master Diver, also plays an important part in the story. "Deep Waters" will be shown at the Rose Theater Thursday, September 7.
