 business here forty years ago, and who now lives in Seattle, is visiting Vernonia this week.
 Mr. Hartman is pleased to see our town coming to the front.
 He is a Vernonia property holder and will, of course, be a Ver-nonia booster. His many friends were glad to see him this week.

Good Entertainment

The Burkhart Novelty Entertainers gave a splendid show at the opera house Monday night.
 Each member of the company is an artist in their particular line.
 Pianist is an exception, Cornet-ist the best ever heard here.
 The Whistling by Mr. Burkhart isn't excelled in America and the lady ventriloquist is far ahead of any generally heard on the vaudeville stage.

C. N. Rundell and John Hall have formed a partnership for the shoe business. They are stocking up in the corner room of the Vernonia Hotel and have a large line of some splendid makes of shoes. They thoroughly understand the business and will do a thriving business.

 Condit's father and mother Mr.
