Vote Safe For Vernonia

At the bottom of your ticket it is duty to vote "Yes" or "No" on adopting the new charter. A matter of form requires this. We must vote "Yes" on the charter, as the charter gives water. If the charter vote wasn't "yes," the law would thereby make it impossible to secure water at all. Then there is the bond for water, that we must vote "yes" on. All women will do this, and the man also, if they don't forget it. Health demands it. There is also on the ticket the vote on the light and power franchise. We must vote "Yes" on this question. The women will do this too, as they know the conveniences to be derived from electric irons, lights with no chimneys to clean, or oil to buy, etc. Light and power are also required for health, safety and town building—pretty nice dark winter nights when its muddy. A city can't grow to a city without it. Suppose Portland got her light and power from steamplant burning wood. There wouldn't be any Portland Hydro-electric is the cheapest possible, the best in every way and assumes in factories, industries, work and prosperity. It will cost the city absolutely nothing, no taxes, it is privately owned, and we don't need to have our house wired if we don't wish to. Vote "yes," on these questions, men, the women don't need to be told, as they know what it means for home conveniences safety and to the children. One question involves the other. Vote "yes" on all three.

Vernonia is destined to become the largest lumber center of the state. Vernonia is located in the grandest, most sublime, most romantic spot in Oregon. A dimple on the cheek of nature, a most beautiful, healthy valley at the hub of five rock bottom streams.

Mrs. C. D. White was called to St Helens Saturday to see her mother who is quite ill, and while there the sad and fatal accident befell her nephew. Leo Lampa, 19 years old, was drowned in the Columbia, while working on a boom at one of the big mills. The funeral was held in St Helens Monday.

A Kentucky farmer while digging a hole in the earth last week stuck his pick in a pot containing $43,000 in gold. Let's all start digging holes.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Lane were purchasing new goods for the store, in Portland, this week.

The Columbia hotel is being enlarged to help take care of the daily overflow of room seekers.

Just a Word of Warning

Gambling on an extensive scale in Vernonia, has got to stop. The Eagle takes this on good authority, and we are told and backed by the city marshal, the administration and every law abiding citizen in the community. One or more individuals with no visible means of support have been in Vernonia for months. They live by gambling. These people will have to go to work, change their habits or move. No use to live on hard earnings of the more ignorant or off of those who are tempted to play. Law will be upheld in Vernonia.

MR. MERCHANT

You Need the Newspaper

The newspaper of today is the most powerful medium of advertising on earth. In the old days the merchant may have thought he was a benefactor and that he was contributing his bit "as a public-spirited citizen" when he carried a two-inch space in the village paper every week in the year and generally without change of copy. Possibly he was.

But that is changed now. A new order has arrived. People read advertisements. Many find their greatest interest in looking over the advertising pages to get news that will save them money, and, take it from John D. Rockefeller, the way to save your dollars is first to save your pennies.

Advertisements today are right up to the minute. They are as fresh as the news of the world for the latest baseball score. Live merchants cater to live people and they know they must not alone be up to the minute, but they must be some distance ahead. They must anticipate the wants of their customers.

And they do. Turn to the advertisements in this paper right now. Just read what the merchants are offering. Notice the invitations for you to do business with them. Notice how attractively the advertisements are set up and how inviting they are.

Do you know that some firms think so much of a style of type that they buy series of it just for their advertisement? You can never mistake it. Altman's advertisement. As soon as you see the open type you know it is Altman's advertisement without looking for the name. This is true of many firms.

Business men—that is the successful ones—know advertising pays big returns. Unsuccessful men don't advertise because they are unsuccessful. That's the answer. Look over your town right now and pick out the big firms. They're the advertisers. Advertising is the tonic that puts dividends in the banks.

Everybody reads advertisements today. Mr. Merchant, is your advertisement in this newspaper?
