Eagle's Policy and Program

An Industrial Vernonia.
Larger City Schools.
A City Park.
United Community.
And advocating the Portland-Astoria Inland Highway via the Nehalem Valley.

Will H. Hays is seeing the light.

And too, would the Presidents Cabinet handle Ford Accessories on the side.

If the U. S. can prevent war it begins to look like the time was ripe to begin preventin.

2,000,000 Bibles were sold in China last year. Better than selling them booze and bullets.

When Henry gets to be President, will he and the "Firt Lady" ride in a Ford? (certainly got an eye for advertising, the man Ford.

Ex. Emperor William is "in print more than any noted (?) individual of the age. Another policy of the daily press and magazine sections universally condemned.

A man soon loses friends and patronage when he gets in the wrong crowd, or spends his idle hours talking against the law, the city and the officials.

What a general smile is evident everywhere. The Legislature is cutting taxes right and left. Like it generally does, by new bills, more expense and new tax measures.

Said a dour Scotch Klansman to a pessimistic neighbor: "Bah!" You remind me of the motor of my car. There's always something wrong with it, and it knocks continually."

Charley Chapman and Pola Negri are to be married. One is an actor taking silly parts in movies; the other is a foreigner from some European country that attempts tragedy. Both movie Stars and will live together probably a year.

Yellow papers, scare head propaganda articles and war talk haste a war. Very few want war however. It is useless, and if a popular vote was taken on the question by each nation before deciding, there would be more fighting.

Do such disgraceful scenes and displays as this hasten war?
In Farnee at the Folies Bergere (theatre) they are showing such acts as: French Moroccan troops in the act of occupying a German Village interspersed with naked girl numbers." And in Berlin like reports are told of.

OBITUARY POME.

Here lies the car of William Gregg.
And a little piece of William's leg:
The rest of Bill was a total loss For he tried to beat the train across.
—Exchange.

The casualty list will soon be back on the first pages—it is starting all fresh in the same old way. First headline is out, reading "Eighty soldiers killed and wounded." And on top of all this the Kaiser was paid $10,000 for his photograph. Three fools: the Kaiser, the man paying the price and the papers printing it.

The U. S. has 1834 golf links. Millions of good acres devoted to idleness and used only to roll a little ball on. In value, $145,000,000.00, while the jobless are hungry and the Near East still starves. Why not roll a few potatoes on this land instead of golf balls. Digging the spuds would give the knee pants guys as much exercise as they would need.

The Western American is maintaining an efficient secret service in places where such work is needed. Let no one blame anyone else for the "leakage" of inside facts. There is no leak but one of the best newspaper men on the Pacific coast is on the job, that's all. To persons who are doing wrong and going "haywire," there's only one warning: "Watch your step!"— Western American.

A Norwegian boy in one of our public schools, learning his English rapidly, wrote this essay on The Frog: "What a wonderful bird the frog are! When he stand he sit almost. When he hop, he fly almost. He ain't got no sense hardly; he ain't got no tail hardly, either. When he sit on what he ain't got, almost.

If a man is a man and obeys the laws, he never fears any "hooded mob."

The new hotel, "Columbia," starting in Astoria, will have 150 guest rooms and will cost $400,000.

EAGLE SCREAMS

We've searched the "Dream Book" through, but no significance is attached to a dream of a world's fair.

The French army has reacted Hamm. If they could reach a little further and get some eggs.

Young and green yet, in some respects, but Oregon will be 64 years old Feb. 14.

He who rests will rust,
He who tusts will bust,
No rest—no rust,
No trust—no bust.

An ignorant fellow annoys sometimes, but an educated fool is an annoyance forever.

If you expect your venture will be a mistake, it surely will.

We sometimes wonder if people don't contract poor health by complaining.

Now, honest, young fellow, if you were picking out a wife wouldn't you take the plain girl neatly dressed rather than a—well, rather than the other?

MORE THAN A CHEER

In every community there are Americans to whom patriotism is a puzzle. There are those who have an idea that patriotism means a cheer when the flag goes by. There are others whose actions never show that they see the flag when it goes by.

Neither of these classes have any comprehension of the real meaning of patriotism. Real patriotism consists of a true comprehension of what the flag stands for—justice, toleration, religious freedom, liberty, safety of person and property, decency and consideration for the weak.

Mr. Hale was in town from the Oregon American camp on business Wednesday.
