articles in town at the Hazelwood

Mrs. J. C. Lindley was a Hillsboro visitor this week.

Mrs. J. C. Emmons spent the week-end with home folks.

Get on our magazine list and get your favorite magazine every issue at the Hazelwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were Portland visitors over the week end.

A. Corey his having his new home painted and papered, by Dale & Enos, city painters.

Lloyd Thomas took his turn with the "grip" the first of the week.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Elmer Spencer has been quite sick with the Flu.

Alex Diepold our local baker was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday.

Omar Spencer, and three children of Portland, Sundayed with his mother at Vernonia. A day at Grandma's is a big treat to the children.

The interior and painting of Mr. Sitts' new home on Rose avenue is about completed; done by Dale & Enos, the city painters.

The O.-A. Co. are having their new residence, occupied by Mr.
Baldrige, repapered and fences and sheds painted, done by Dale & Enos, city painters.

Two auto loads of Odd Fellows went to Rainier last Friday night where the lodge there put on the Third Degree work. A splendid time is reported by those in the crowd.

Place your order now for White Leghorn baby chicks for May 1 to June 10 hatches; can book 400 to 500 each week between those dates. Price $16.00 per 100. Get your order in now.
I am not going to be able to fill all orders this year; first come will have choice of dates.—P. Hill, Vernonia, Oregon.

Pete Saari and Percy Harvey, of the Vernonia Brazing & Machine Works, were at Mist a couple of days the first of the week, overhauling a donkey engine for the Carmichael & Cro-der shingle mill.

Dr. Searz, Health Officer and Councilman, directed a "Clean-Up" move in town this week.
Old cans and trash were hauled away. Now let's get busy with old lumber piles, boards, brick etc. It will look better.

Through the Eagle I wish to inform my old customers, as well as prospective ones, that I am booked to the limit for baby chicks to and including May 1. Can book orders at the rate of 400 to 500 per week to about June 10. My strain of White Leghorns are too well known to need any boosting. They do their own crowing and cackling. My yards this year are headed by trapnested cockrels; none better. Price $16.00 per 100. Address P. Hill, Ver-nonia, Ore.

night was well attended, Red Hill, of Vernonia, threw Farmer Vance, of Portland, two out of three, winning the match.

Good News. You can buy all the lumber you want right now, good lumber, at the Twin mill.
Better News. The mill will soon be running again. See their ad.

District Attorney Foote accompanied by Chas. Wikstrom, of Skappoose, visited Vernonia this week. Mr. Foote explained that it was purely a social visit, and he was agreeably surprised and pleased at the rapid growth and activities of our city.

County Judge Philip and Commissioner Fullerton spent a couple days in our city this week.
They were looking over different road conditions and investigating possibilities to hard securing crushed rock to use at this end of the county. The Coulter hill condition was referred to their attention, and we believe they will put some rock or gravel there at an early date.
