I. O. O. F.—Vernonia Lodge No. 246, meets every Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock, in Seseman Hall, opposite Depot.—P. O. Mellinger, Noble Grand; J. W. Rose, Secretary.

With the election of officers for the year, the Oregon state chapter of the P. E. O. sisterhood closed its 12th annual convention at Portland. Mrs. Blanche Zollinger of chapter N, Portland, was unanimously elected president.

The grain crops throughout the state are in good condition but the dropping of some fruits is causing concern, according to the summary of weather and crop conditions in Oregon for the week, issued by the department of agriculture.

through the use of a form letter in which corporations operating in Oregon have been urged to remit promptly their license fees for next year, the receipts of the state corporation department have increased rapidly during the past few weeks, and are far in excess of the receipts during a similar period in 1922.

Reports received at the office of the state industrial accident commission during the last 15 days indicate that a large number of the logging and milling industries of the state contemplate withdrawing their contributions to the workmen's compensation act and will seek protection through contracts with private insurance corporations.

Governor Pierce this week will enter upon the task of appointing the so-called county tax conservation commission under a law enacted at the last session of the legislature. Each commission will be composed of three members. These tax conservation commissions will be similar to the one which has been in operation in Multnomah county for a number of years.

A new lake has made its appearance near Bend. The lake has no name, but it is the largest in the Deschutes national forest. Damming the Deschutes river at Crane Prairie to accumulate storage waters for reclamation of the north canal lands and the Powell Butte project has brought the lake into existence, and in the last few days its area has spread to more than that of Odell lake, according to H. L. Plumb, forest supervisor.

There were five fatalities in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ended May 24, according to a report prepared by the state industrial accident commission. The victims were William Glavey, laborer, St. Helens; Archie McCrea, lineman, Newberg; J. M. Whitney, lineup man, Reedsport; E. A. Smith, timekeeper, Estacada, and Herman Hazelwild, chaser, Eugene. A total of 679 accidents were reported during the week.

Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar of Portland was elected president of the state federation of women's clubs on the closing day of the state convention at Medford. Resolutions endorsing the stand of Senator W. E. Borah against the world court plan of President Harding were defeated by a large majority. Other resolutions introduced included a war on the narcotic evil and physical examination for all school teachers, the latter being defeated.

SPIRIT WAS WILLING, BUT—

Three "reg'lar fellers" and one rather effeminate youngster were having ice cream and cake. The man who was playing host, thinking to have some fun, said: "Boys, how many of you have ever used a swear word?" Three hands shot into the air.

"Aw, come on, Edwin," protested one, "you know you've said bad words." A sort of wistful look passed over Edwin's face as he replied:

"No, honest, I haven't. I'd like to, but I'm around the house too much. I never git a chance."—Washington Star.

Does the Job at Less Cost

LAND-clearing used to be a long, hard, expensive job. It's cheaper and easier today—with Pacific Stumping—the latest du Pont dynamite.

Pacific Stumping gives you one-half more sticks for each dollar—with approximately the same strength, stick for stick, as any standard stumping powder.

Use this new du Pont explosive to clear your land—costs less—gives better results, and it's non-freezing and non-headache.

This store is headquarters for information and quick service on Pacific Stumping and other du Pont dynamites for land-clearing and ditching work. Why not let us help you with that job?
