$1.50 Per Year.

Entered as second-class matter August 4, 1922, at the post office at Vernonia, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Advertising Rates—25c per inch, single column measure, each week. We collect for advertising the first of every month.

PAUL S. ROBINSON.
Editor and Owner.

VERNONIA

Population, 1250
High School & Standard Grade school Pay Roll City—Mills, Logging, work Farming—dairying, fruit, vegetables P. A. & P. Ry. Town growing fast.
On Inland Loop Highway between Portland and Astoria.
A Large territory to draw from.
49 miles from Portland, 35 miles from Forest Grove, 27 from St. Helens.
Many opportunities in Vernonia.
Best hunting, trapping and fishing in the Northwest.

We can't yet pay our bills by wireless.

To many, it seems, Mr.
Pierce has been a disappointment.

Spell "red rum" backwards and you have the definition.

The Forest Grove News-
Times, editorially, is improving every week.

As expected, Ford's boom for President has turned out to be just another Ford joke

President Harding can stick type in a printing shop; he can shock wheat in a Kansas wheat field, and next week, perhaps he will try his hand at falling timber in Oregon—perhaps.

As the Fourth approaches be careful of fireworks. A $12,000 fire in Kelso and two deaths, last week were caused by fireworks. There is a city ordinance in Vernonia against shooting fireworks or crackers in the city limits.
Better be careful than sorry.

Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, printer and newspaper man, will be the guest of the state of Oregon on July 4, in Portland. In honor of our newspaperman-President, all editors of the state have been appointed as members of the publicity committee, and have reserved seats at the speaking and reception to be given that day.

Many Oregon people, and people of the entire country, have been reading of the noted golf player of Oregon.
Very few know that Dr. O.
F. Willing can claim Vernonia his home if he so chooses.
Dr. Willing's father is a Vernonia citizen, residing on his farm not far from town.
It is Dr. Willing's father, here, A. P. Willing, who has just finished the big city reservoir for our water system.

Croquet grounds and a tennis court are being advocated for the High School grounds. We hope the idea is carried successfully, and will not hesitate to take on any of the Vernonia champions for a game of croquet.
We might even be tempted to try our hand at tennis, if some one will do the counting.

Be very careful of fires. Leave no live sparks in the woods, and distinguish any small fire you may see starting.

Every time the Oregon Voter mentions the name of George Baker, and that is every issue, it reminds the many readers of how George Baker is putting Oregon to the fore. You must acknowledge the ability of Mr.
Baker as an advertiser for Oregon, and the state needs advertising, so the Voter tells us. We like the optimistic qualities.

And now we hear that Banks is without a newspaper plant, the statement coming to us that the Herald man has moved his outfit to Beaverton. We truly sympathize with our neighbor city, where we have so many good friends, and are more than willing to offer our services in any way possible in the printing line. One never hears of a town without a paper, and it seems that Banks would deserve one—an ideal spot in Washington county.

If you were given a tire for nothing, and it failed to deliver service, you'd feel that you'd been stung. SERVICE is what you want. You want tires that run on a d on and on, and make you forget their very existence.
