Third and Bridge Streets.

It is that time to think of heating stoves, pipes and ranges. See Hoffman about it.

The biggest sensation ever coming up will be advertised next week. One of your home stores is re-arranging and clearing out half their stock at prices to be below any ever thought of here. A store that never had a sale before. Wait for next week's EAGLE.

Miss Alta Nelson, who has been a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Albert Parker, for the past month, returned to Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Coyle and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. White are attending the Pendleton Round-Up.

City Recorder Ben Owens has made the Owens family all happy by buying a fine new player piano this week.

A. M. Moore, of Hood River and Ben Theysen, of Portland, spent last Sunday at the Carl Jensen home.

Frank Fisher, better known as Dad Fisher, had his foot crushed Wednesday at the O. A. by a 10x10 dropping on his foot. He went to Portland for medical attention.

Mrs. W. L. Hall visited the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. B. T. Hall, in Weiser, Idaho.

Mr. Allen is building another story on his 'Oregon Hotel' building, making it three stories high.

Small farm team, wagon and harness, all for $150. See W. A. A. Bayliss, mile east of Vernonia.

A. W. Peterson will soon move his new Gents' Furnishing Store in the present drugstore building.

Good, big business lot on Bridge Street for sale. Inquire EAGLE office.

500 of the finest homes in Berkeley, Cal., were totally destroyed by fire Monday.

The street work on Vernonia's Main street is certainly an important improvement.

Robt. Hagg and wife have gone to New York on a business trip to take about 20 days.

About fifty Vernonia citizens witnessed a Klan initiation at Forest Grove Tuesday night.

A. L. Fuller, of Rainier, has been in Vernonia this week. Mr. Fuller is representing the Western Bond & Mortgage Co., of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Stingley, of Junction City, Or., are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lambert, at the Lindsay mill.

A Tillamook concern is putting on a "Jazz Sale" in a Vernonia branch store, conducted by some outside "Sales System." We see some big 'red painted' bills out. Patronize home and watch your step.

Wm. Pringle is putting up a new building on his valuable property next to THE EAGLE office. A first-class three chair barber shop and baths will occupy the new building, and we understand it is to be a strictly modern shop in every way.
