RELIEF FOR GERMAN CHILDREN SOUGHT

Work of Committee in Oregon Directed By Hoover Campaign Head.

Robert H. Strong, of the Portland firm of Strong & MacNaughton, who directed the campaign for foods for starving peoples of Europe for Herbert Hoover here in 1921, has accepted the chairmanship of the Oregon state committee for the relief of starving German children. This is affiliated with the American Committee for Relief of German Children, of which Major-General Henry T. Allen, who commanded the American forces on the Rhine during the occupation, is chairman for the United States. It is backed by Herbert Hoover, former Oregon boy, now secretary of commerce, and is endorsed by President Coolidge and was likewise endorsed by the late President Harding.

ROBERT H. STRONG
State Chairman, American Committee For Relief of German Children.

The Oregon committee is to launch soon a campaign to raise $100,000 in this state, half in Portland and half in the out-state districts. Headquarters for the work have been opened in 715 Corbett building, Portland, with H. L. Eddy in charge as director. It has been endorsed locally by the Portland Council of Churches, the business interests of the city and by the Central Labor Council, all of which have declared that, whatever may have been done to bring about starvation conditions in Germany, certain it is that the little children there should not be blamed and that they must be fed and clothed.

SAVE GERMAN CHILDREN

Strong Oregon Committee Works For Relief Fund.
For the purpose of raising $100,000 in Oregon as a part of a fund of $10,000,000 from the United States to save 2,000,000 little children in Germany who are facing starvation because of the terrible conditions there, a strong committee has been named in Portland to look generally after this work throughout the state and particularly in that city. In the other larger cities of the state committees will be named to take charge of the relief work. Portland is state headquarters, with offices in room 715 Corbett building, where H. L. Eddy is in charge as director.

Robert H. Strong, of the firm of Strong & MacNaughton, is state chairman. He had charge of the Hoover food relief campaign in Oregon in 1921, when that campaign was put on to relieve distress in Europe. The committee which has sponsored the relief work in Oregon consists of men prominent in various lines of business, as follows:

Charles F. Adams, of the First National bank; J. C. Atsworth, president of the United States National bank; W. B. Ayer, president Eastern & Western Lumber company; George L. Baker, mayor of Portland; Fred L. Boalt, editor Portland News; Rev. Harold Leonard Bowman, pastor First Presbyterian church; Colonel H. C. Cabell; Edward Cookingham, president Ladd & Tilton bank; Otto Hartwig, president State Federation of Labor; I. Lowengart; Edgar B. Piper, editor of the Oregonian; Bishop W. O. Shepard, Methodist Episcopal church; Ben Selling, philanthropist; Amedee M. Smith, president of the board of directors of the Portland community chest; Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, of Temple Beth Israel; J. E. Wheeler, publisher Portland Telegram.

Executive committee: Arthur M. Churchill; Marshall N. Dana, associate editor Oregon Journal; S. L. Eddy, Ladd & Tilton bank, treasurer for the state committee; Kurt H. Koehler, E. C. Sammons and Mr. Strong.

Every cent of the money subscribed for this fund will actually go to buy food.

Oregon people are asked this year to express their holiday and New Year spirit by giving something to relieve the suffering of more than two million starving German children. With unemployment common, the mark currency valueless, government disorganized, business at a standstill, a winter of famine, disease and terror confronts the German people. The scourge is falling heaviest on the children; the children with whom we have had no quarrel; the children who could not be blamed for any wrongs.
