MIX TURNS KNIGHT TO WIN A LADY'S HAND IN THE LATEST FILM

Are you fond of books like "Ivanhoe"? Do the tales of King Arthur awaken deep interest in your thought? Does your imagination glow when you read about bold knights of the golden age who paid homage to fair ladies, and stood ready to attempt any deed, no matter how dangerous or foolhardy to prove their valor and their love? Suppose these things happen now?

A Fox production, Romance Land starring Tom Mix, relates the adventures of a man and a maid on the Western plains. Both of them become inspired by the stories rescribing the time when knighthood was in flower. The resultant events are said to furnish an exceedingly novel and entertaining photoplay. There is some well done "broncho busting," a chariot race, and a whirlwind stage coach contest, according to advance information received.

When "Romance Land" comes to the Rose Theatre for two days starting Tuesday, everyone in Vernonia will have the opportunity to see a modern knight of the saddle go forth to win the hand and favor of his lady fair.

RAWLINSON COMING TO THE STATE

"His Mystery Girl" is the title of the Universal picture starring Herbert Rawlinson, which comes to the majestic theatre next Sunday and Monday. It is, as the title might suggest, the story of a young man completely enamored of a young lady whom he doesn't even know. She remains a mystery to him for some time in the story, too.

Herbert Rawlinson has played dashing, romantic heroes with the sort of chivalrous and courteous personalities which makes such characters appealing to the public. However, he has never played a role, it is said which was so thoroughly a "characterization" all the way through as this one is. In "His Mystery Girl," which was written by Marion Orth and directed by Robert F. Hill, Rawlinson plays a young "business bug" whose mind is so eternally on business that he can't act human enough to have a little fun on occasions.

The cast is adequate to properly convey the essential points of the story. Ruth Dwyer, a promising new "discovery," plays the leading Margaret Campbell, Ralph McCullough, Robert E. Homans, William Quinn, Jere Austin and other film favorites are in the supporting cast.

It might be a good plan to offer a prize for the best appearing lawn. But prize or no prize, pride alone will have most to do with it. It has been remarked that you can judge a family by the appearance of their immediate surroundings. It's time to plant and beautify.

Schools

High School News.

On Monday night, March 17, Barney Google had the time of his life. The Spark Plug team who gave Barney the party certainly did the job up right. There were games, novel and amusing, a very interesting little stunt based on mental telegraphy (so we are told) and Helen Brown gave an exhibition of her powers as a hypnotist. Everyone enjoyed the evening and refreshments were served early so as not to let our entertaining interfere with our studying for the next day.

On Tuesday afternoon we had a general clean-up and folks this renowned block of ours is hardly recognizable. The grounds were cleared of all trash, waste paper, boards, etc. the old well filled up and tennis courts leveled. We expect to have our tennis courts ready for play in a short time now and then you'll hear of some snappy contests.

The Girl Reserve of the Vernonia High School are helping to support an orphan and also looking forward to a Summer Camp. Going to school costs money so the girls have decided to earn the necessary funds for these side expenditures. Any one who cares to go out in the evening may have a high school girl care for the children. They will also be available Saturdays to assist with Spring housecleaning or anything outside school hours. Phone Mrs. Beaman at the high school between two and three o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Mills are moving into their new home.
