

It's Building Time

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bequeath of Portland visited Sunday with their son Dr. Bequeath.

W. J. Chapin from the I.-P. camp was in town Monday to have his finger taken care of. He almost chopped his fore finger off while cutting kindling.

A. B. Counts is on the sick list.

J. J. Jines, his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dell DeHaven, of Amboy, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mr. Jines sister, Mrs. Ben Owens.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Glassner at Brauns a 10 pound boy March 14.

Miss Holiday spent Sunday in Portland.

Prof. Schroeder was in Portland over the week end.

On the evening of St. Patrick's Day Mrs. Nash gave a box supper at her school, the Pleasant Hill, at which over $50 was taken in to apply on play ground equipment.

Eight new houses are being built on north Rose avenue.

Mr. Cleveland realized that the city needed a street light at Bridge street and Columbia, and in asking the Council to establish it, he volunteered to pay the fee for three months in advance out of his own pocket.

We broke a very delicate part of the linotype this week, and were scared blue. It is a small hard part for the mats to go through while distributing. It would take three weeks to get a new part and it would have to come from Brooklyn. But Perry Harvey at the Vernonia Brazing and Machine Works brazed it and never got it out of tune a hairs breadth. It certainly was a pretty job and only delayed us an hour.

Beavtr and Koster camps have closed one side.

The Evangelical Choir served a "dandy" supper at the Grange Hall Tuesday night and raised $60 to apply on their piano.

At the recent Corner stone laying for the large new church. C. L. Schuster officiating, there were about 75 present and all had their pictures taken. In the corner stone were placed a picture of the corner stone, oil church and the Sunday School, the names of officers of the various organizations, copies of the Vernonia Eagle, Evangelical Messenger, Christian Endeavor and a Lincoln Ptnny.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland went in Portland Tuesday.

W. T. Hatton was a Portland visitor this week.

Mr. Buffmair was a Portland visitor the middle of the week.

Miss Meril Conner visited Portland friends this week.

Frank Schopplin, Vice-President of the Central Coal & Coke Company, of Kansas City, Mo., was a recent visitor to Vernonia on a trip of inspection of the property of this company.

Forrest Cabb, in charge of Western sales for the Moore Dry Klin Company spent one day in Vernonia from his Portland Headquarters.

C. W. Gould, who will have charge of the operation of the dry klin of the Oregon-American Lumbtr Co., was a recent visitor here from Portland.

Dr. J. A. Hughes went to Portland Friday afternoon on professional business.

Ed Dennis, of Longview, Wash., with a port of friends, visited the Oregon-American plant Friday. Mr. Dennis is very enthusiastic over the bright outlook for the town of Ver-nonia.

F. E. Martin, of San Francisco, Vice-Prsident of the Martin Air Dog Company, was a recent visitor to Vernonia. Mr. Martin for a number of years operated large lumber manufacturing plants in the south and west while engaged in the work conceived the idea of a mechanical air-operated device that would handle logs on a sawmill carriage in such a manner as to more efficiently manufacture lumber than can be done by hand "dogging" The Martin Air Dog was the outgrowth of the idea and this invention is now being installed in a large number of modern sawmills in the west, the Oregon-American Lumber Company proposed installation being one of the latest. Mr. Martin was very favorably impressed with the growth and possibilities of Vernonia and expects to visit Vernonia again shortly.

Ralph Rawson of Portland was a visitor here Friday. Mr. Rawson is a member of the firm of Goss & Rawson who are erecting the dry klin at the big mill plant.

Mr. Enos has accepted a position as head painter in charge of the painting of the new houses at "Millview" the big mill company's residence section.

Charles Cawthor, of Conroe, Texas who recently drove a Ford from the Texas town to Vernonia to accept a position with the Oregon-American is expecting his family in a few days

Russell Lilley, of Neane, Louisiana, is another southerner who decided to take Greeley's advice and "Go West Young Man." Mr. Lilley was connected with the Kieth mill in the south before coming to Vernonia

L. A. Hardee, the physiological sales manager of the Ohio Knife Co. was here from Seattle Tuesday.

F. W. Reverman, manager of the Cleaver Manufacturing Company, of Portland was a recent business visitor to Vernonia.

W. Glover of the Northwestern Trust Company of Portland spent one day here on business.

A. J. Stewart, western manager of the American Woodworking Machine Company was here Friday from Portland headquarters.

Twenty Portland business men visited Vernonia Sunday and were guests of the Oregon-American Lumber Company. They took lunch at the company's mess hall and were shown over the big mill plant by Messrs Frank Schopplin, J. W. Atkins, W. H. McGregor and E. E. Hayes, of the Mill Company.

Milton A. Fuegy, traveling freight and passenger agent of the S. P. & S. Ry. was here recently from Astoria.

T. F. Rush of Portland was in Vernonia Tuesday on busintss.

R. H. Keith, West Coast manager for the Black Steel & Wire Company, was here from Portland Tuesday.

The store keepers in a number of communities are now cooperating in the distribution of the squirrel poison to the farmers. The squirrel poison has been mixed under the direction of the office of biological survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture who are cooperating with the counties of the state in the rodent control work. Now is the time to poison the ground squirrel before he has had an opportunity to damage this year's crops. The poisoning of one squirrel at this time will be equal to poisoning sevtral later on whtn tht young have bten developed. They will eat the poison grain more readily at this time of the year when they have recently come frim their winter quarters, and feed is not so plentiful. The Farm Bureau has arranged for the distribution of squirrel poison at cost. This may be obtained through the county agent's office, or through your community leadtr, who will arrange for its distributiin in your community.

A. L. Kullander, the new proprietor of the jewelry store in Vernonia hereafter to be known as the "Kullander Jewelry Store" has an interest in a large jewelry store in Independence, Oregon. He wants all the people of Vernonia and vicinity to call on him at the store in the former Martineau location.

Mr. and Mrs. Jass Kerr of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting at the D. W. Keasey home. Mrs. Ktrr is a sister to Mr. Keasey. They are on a trip to Texas.

Water rents can hereafter be paid at the City Transfer office, C. W. Watt, at the corner of Second and Bridge street; Central location, handy and convenient. Water rent is $2 per month beginning April 1. Extra water during summer months for garden and sprinkling is $2 per month extra fir all not on a meter.

Grandma Keasey is out from Portland to visit a week.

The Vernonia Mercantile Company has changed hands this week. Mr. L. R. Gilchrist has purchased my interest in the store and will hereafter conluct the business. Business relations in the store between the firm and patrons has been very agreeable and satisfactory, and I want to hereby express my appreciation and thanks to the many friends and patrons met during my connection with the store. Thanking all for past favors and your liberal trade, I am very kindly. L. H. Detrow.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Epyert of Portland spent Sunday with Mrs. Epyerts sister, Mrs. Alf Becker.

Mrs. Ed. Schubel entertained a few of her friends Tuesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Gorden, of Portland.

A Few of Vernonia's Fine Buildings

The Mailman

Babe Ruth—look to your laurels! Jack Dempsey—watch your step! You have opposition in the arena of Public Approval. Emory Johnson, master showman of the cinema, hits the bullseye again! Four terrific successes in a row Not a solitary failure! "In the Name of the Law"; "The Third Alarm" and "Westbound Limited"—crashing, slashing success ALL and now the greatest of the group—"THE MAILMAN"!

See the entire Pacific Fleet in action! See the gray destroyers plunging in the trough of the sea! See, in all their soul-stirring drama, a dozen other colossal scenic cataclyms—in the monumental tribute to U. S. Postal workers!

Coming to the Rose Theatre March 29 and 30

Mrs. Nash is on the sick list and unable to be in school Wednesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tucker a boy Wednesday, March 19.

Mrs. H. R. Hanes recently spent a couple weeks visiting her daughter in Portland.

Chas Bergerson recently purchased a new Dodge car.

Charles Dubendorf is building a new residence on the East Side.

Mrs. J. F. Heenan and children spent the week end in Portland.

It will never look the same, when you get a little paint on it. This is no adv. for any painter, only a suggestion and a wish of the Eagle's for a beautiful home city.

THE Phi Beta Kappa "Key" identifies its owner as having won the highest scholastic honors his university could give him. Just as the "Red Crown" disc identifies a product that has won all motordom's approval for its high standards of quality, of power and of mileage.

STANDARD of QUALITY

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (CALIFORNIA)

EVERYBODY'S BUILDING

