

NOW FOR A WEEK OF GOOD ONES

For This Saturday Night and Sunday Matinee

Jackie Coogan IN "TROUBLE"

Jackie Coogan is America's Favorite Child Wonder. Many pronounce him at his best in this production. We look for a crowded house at these two showings.

Sunday Night and Monday Night

"THE MYSTERY GIRL"

A Rattling Romance of a Woman-hating Adventurer

He was looking for a justice of the peace at four a. m. How could he tell it was a frame-up? Did he beat up half a dozen men for the fun of it? Anyways, he was a woman hater who loved at least one woman.

Tuesday and Wednesday Night

"FLOWER OF THE NORTH"

A mammoth production with spectacular scenes never equalled. Thrilling rescue from rapids; enthralling battle with Indians—Pictureque signal fires on mountain tops; Locations never before seen in motion pictures.

Thursday and Friday

"ON THE BANKS OF THE WABASH"

Vernonia people, a few having seen this recently in Portland, pronounced it the best and most magnificent they ever witnessed. "On the Banks of the Wabash". There's a call of home in the sighing sycamores! And joys and tears and laughter of the folks you used to know! And what a punch! The greatest flood scene ever screened! Raging waters! Fire! Terror.

MAJESTIC THEATER Vernonia's Popular Playhouse Third and Bridge Streets.

"MALMSTEN'S RIVERSIDE VIEW"

offer just what you have been looking for! Lots of acreage for sale just across the main highway from the big Oregon-American mill. A rare opportunity to own a home where you can get your warm dinners within easy walking distance. Fine view on the beautiful Nehalem river. Resident and business houses are now going up. Investigate before deciding. See owner across street from grade school. F. E. MALMSTEN.

BOND HOUSE PARTY VISITS BIG MILL PLANT

About two dozen men of Portland, Seattle and Kansas City made up the party that visited Vernonia Sunday and inspected the big mill here. With Vice-President Schofflin of the Central Coal & Coak Co., and Mr. McGregory of the Oregon-American Lumber Co. and Lalesmen of the Blyth, Witter & Co. Bonding House with the Portland manager, Mr. M. P. Griffiths, they were shown over the entire plant by Supt. E. E. Hayes. We met some of the party who spoke in glowing terms of Vernonia's future. Some wondered why the city didn't have a large modern hotel, and seemed to think that at least our main street should have been paved ere this. This Bonding House is handling the million and a half issue of new bonds for the Central Coal & Coak Co., and consequently are interested in Vernonia. Mr. Boyd, their municipal Bond Buyer was in the
