

VERNONIA EAGLE

Issued Every Friday.
$2.00 Per Year.

Entered as second-class matter August 1, 1922, at the post office at Vernonia, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Advertising Rates: 25cts per inch, single column measure, each week. We collect for advertising the first of every month.

PAUL S. R. BINSON,
EDITOR AND OWNER.

EDITORIAL

The Western American is a weekly paper published in Portland, the official organ of the K. K. K. Lodge. In its last issue they carried a half dozen articles pertaining to Vernonia. The occasion being the coming Ceremony of the local lodge expects to put on June 27. The Western American is read all over the Northwest and in every city in the state. The publicity given Vernonia is worth much and will mean the largest crowd in Vernonia next Friday ever seen in the Nehalem valley.

General Charles G. Dawes, of Illinois, was nominated for the Vice-Presidency, at the Republican National Convention. Coolidge and Dawes are the Republican candidates and victory is staring the min the face. The country is now anxiously waiting to see what the Democrats are going to do. To make defeat more certain the Democrats might nominate Al Smith.

The Inland Highway from Portland to Astoria, via Vernonia, is creating considerable favorable comment throughout the state. Well it should, as we know of no new road program so vital and important. The highway from Portland is paved as far as Forest Grove. Now start from Forest Grove and pave through Pinks, Buxton, up Beaver Pass to Vernonia and by Mist, Jewell and on to Astoria. At the Astoria end 15 miles are now paved this way. It is certainly time to get busy on the completion of this highway, as the Columbia River Highway cannot handle the congested travel much longer.

CORRECT MILLINERY IN POPULAR PRICES

Designing and Dressmaking

EVERY-READY HAT SHOP

OPEN SATURDAY

Evenings

OF COURSE SHE WILL ENJOY IT

Why stop to ask her if she would like an ice cream soda or one of our many wonderful soft drinks? Of course she does, and furthermore she will credit your good judgement in bringing her where such delicious drinks are served in the way we know so well how to serve them.

The Gayosa
L.H. Detrow, Prop.

"Moral Insanity" is the defense of the two murderers of the Franks boy recently. Sure, they both went insane at the same time, and there is no doubt about their morals. They will get away with it too. All bootleggers are morally insane; all law-breakers are morally wrong. These particular two millionaire murderers and kidnapers are morally insane all right, because they say so. Those guilty of such moral insane acts should be punished regardless of how much money they have, and in this case it should be the chair or the rope.

A Weekly Panorama of Events in the National Capital By Peter Keegan

Congress always scatters to the four winds as soon as a session ends, but the migration out of the capital was quicker than usual this time because of the impending Cleveland convention. One special train left the Union Station here, loaded with Senators, Congressmen and newspaper men, thirty minutes after the hour set for adjournment. No time lost there.

The American ambassadorial post at Tokio, recently vacated by Cyrus Woods, may be filled at once, if for no other reason than a political one. Rumors have been heard that Secretary Hughes did not want to send a new man there because there were only a few months more of the Coolidge Administration, and no one could tell what might happen in the November election. Talk like that is not good for a presidential candidate so there may be a new Ambassador in Japan to quiet the rumors.

George Harvey's return to journalism after a successful fling at diplomacy is of special interest in Washington because he has become the editor of the Post, the capital's rock-ribbed Republican daily. Harvey's editorial page looks like it had been taken from one of the old conservative London papers, and he is filling it up so far with clippings which he procured during his stay in Great Britain. Of interest, too, is that fact that Harvey is occupying the now famous house at 1509 H. street where Harry Daugherty and Jesse Smith lived when they came to Washington four years ago.

William Jennings Bryan will sit in the Democratic National Convention as a delegate from Florida. It looked for a while that he couldn't even make the grade in the primary, but when the votes were counted, lo and behold, the Commoner led all the rest. With Bryan at New York, there is sure to be a convention fight over a dry plank in the platform. He is pledged to oppose Senator Underwood, the outstanding southern candidate for the Presidency, because of the latter's wet leanings.

The government is continuing with its plans for issuing the bonus insurance certificates to world war veterans despite the local efforts here to have the bonus law declared invalid and unconstitutional. The court fight against the bonus is directed, according to the American Legion, by interests which have opposed the bonus from the start.

Two of the major problems upon which President Coolidge clashed with congress—Tax revision and the world court—will be kept alive throughout the summer and will be mulled over as the Capital again next winter. There will be much talk of both issues during the campaign and when Congress reconvenes, the President will renew his demand for the Harding-Hughes world court and tax reform along the lines recommended by Secretary Mellon. Leaders of his own party right now are not wholeheartedly behind him on either proposal and wholly at variance with him on the world court. On the court fight, however, he has the backing of the Democrats.

LIVE MEN, REAL MEN, MEN WHO ARE BUILDING VERNONIA

NUMBER ONE

E. E. HAYES: In every city there are men who are of the sound, progressive, active spirit, who seldom get due credit or due mention at the time of the deeds. Boquets to the living will never harm the civic pride or mar the efficiency of the conservative type spoken of. Vernonia has many good, loyal, square shooting, law abiding, permanent citizens that are working for the community welfare and who can be depended upon. Men who think deep, men who are planning a home, who intend to build for the future as well as the present. Of such men in Vernonia, allow us this week to merely mention E. E. Hayes. Mr. Hayes is the Superintendent of the big mill now being built in Vernonia by the Oregon-American Lumber Co. Mr. Hayes is not a tourist; he now calls this his home, he intends to remain and to be one and a part of Vernonia. He is, of course, greatly interested in this his home. He is interested in our schools, our neighborhood, our civic affairs and enterprises, our moral welfare, spiritual welfare, our financial welfare. Mr. Hayes is for men, he takes nothing into consideration but the man. He is not a politician, is not a "Mixer" as many translate the word; he attends to his own affair and his own position. As the head of one of the largest industrial plants in the west he expects every man on the job to do his job. The lowest paid and the most humble worker is to Mr. Hayes just as important to his respective position as is the Chief Engineer or the Head Foreman is to his position. Mr. Hayes believes every individual has a task to perform, and while on duty that task must be performed. No loafers are appreciated by this Superintendent. We have heard Mr. Hayes express himself very meager and on rare occasions, but every word comes with that clear and conscientious voice and sincere force that at once places him in your confidence. We have often wished that Mr. Hayes would take a more active part in the affairs of Vernonia, as we believe the city needs his advice and his ideas that he has learned from city building and from his business career. Mr. Hayes is a mighty good citizen that it would pay to tie to and pattern after. He is a big aid in putting Vernonia on the map.

EAGLE FEATHERS

Bad people do openly what good people do secretly.

Never hold a nail for your wife to strike at.

"The best way to get ahead is to use your own head."

ERROR CORRECTED

By oversight, an error appeared in the copy of City Ordinance No. 75, which was published in the last two issues of the Vernonia Eagle. This ordinance regulates the burning of refuse material in any street, alley or lot within the restricted fire district of the City of Vernonia. The error referred to made the above read "vacant" lot; whereas the fact is that this ordinance prohibits such burning of combustibles on any lot within said district, regardless of whether it is vacant or occupied, unless such burning is safeguarded according to the provisions of said ordinance.

W. A. Grossman,
City Attorney

TAX FACTS

Every manufacturer must add his taxes to the selling price of his product.

Every Merchant must add his taxes to the selling price of his goods.

Every farmer must add his taxes to the selling price of his produce.

Every builder must add his taxes to the selling price of the building he constructs.

Every railroad must add its taxes to the selling price of passenger tickets and freight charges.

Every landlord must add his taxes to the rents of his houses.

Every clothier must add his taxes to the selling price of his garments.

It makes no difference whether it's labor, or materials or service that is sold, the taxes must be added, and they are!

Unless taxes are added to selling

COME HERE SHOPPING

Attractive assortments of freshly gathered vegetables and fruits await your approval. And you may choose from the very choicest of the season's offerings at prices which will please you with their opportunities for economy. Vernonia's Store for GROCERIES.

The Central Grocery

PHONE 222

J. J. Purney

We Deliver

The Manhattan Cafe

HAS GONE UNDER STRICTLY NEW MANAGEMENT
SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO LADIES AND FAMILIES
GIVE US A CALL
THANK YOU IN ADVANCE

Berry & Jacobson Brothers

AUTO TOP AND HARNESS SHOP

In the New Roschat Building on Rose Avenue, just South of Standard Oil Company.

HOGUE & ERNEST

will open for business today a new Auto Top Shop and Harness Shop and are ready to attend to all your needs in this line. New Tops, Old ones made new, repairs, painted and fixed. All kinds of Harness work—Call and See Us—We Will Treat You Right

VULCANIZING

VULCANIZING

A SPLENDID CREDIT ASSET

It is not very pleasant to be turned down when you ask your banker for a loan. But no bank should loan the money of their depositors on no other security than the salary of the prospective borrower.

You will find an account here at the Bank of Vernonia a splendid asset in building up your credit rating in the community.

BANK OF VERNONIA
Vernonia, Oregon