FIRST FLAKES FALL

The first snow of winter was quite pronounced last Sunday. Large flakes fell for several hours, but the wet ground melted them as fast as they fell. The hills, however, were covered with snow.

When the average Vernonia man gets past 50 he spends his time worrying over rheumatism and how fast the country is going to the dogs.

It's always a good idea to carry a little storm insurance. No telling what time your wife will take a notion to raise the roof off the house.
