

Locals

Mrs. W. V. Lindley was a Garibaldi visitor from Vernonia last Friday and Saturday, being a guest while here at the home of her brother, E. L. Goodwin, and family. The Lindley family formerly lived here and still own residential property. The lady said Vernonia was a lively place, he new sawmill recently put in operation giving the city a decided impetus. Mr. Lindley, for a long time employed in the sawmill here, secured like employment when he moved to Vernonia with his family months ago. —Garibaldi News.

Mr. and Mrs. Kavanaugh have returned to St. Helens, having sold their place here to Mr. Bateman.

Stores of Vernonia have enjoyed a very good Christmas business.

F. J. Brewer Sundayed in Portland.

December 21st, 1924 Annual meeting of the Stockholders of Nehalem Telephone Co. Will be held at Vernonia, Oregon, Jan. 7, 1925 at 1 o'clock. All Stockholders are urgently requested to be present at Grange Hall.

Louis Siegert, Sec'y.

No news—it's Christmas, everybody eating dinner with somebody.

Did you get your stocking full?

Be here early and enjoy it all. One big time next Munday night at the C. of C. Dumb-bell's Frolic. A little bit of everything. Coyle's hall, beginning at 7:30.

Many Vernonia people are familiar with the old ticket collector or door man at Pantages in Portland. After 14 years standing at that door he died suddenly this week.

Among some beautiful Christmas cards from outside cities we received are: Bill Strandborg of Portland Electric Power Co., a beautiful one from the U. S. National Bank of Portland, one from the West Coast Eng. Co., a "Cross Word" one from Mr.

and Mrs. C. C. Chapman of Oregon Voter, one from Mr. and Mrs. W. Martineau of Gold Hill, one from the State Laundry, Blakt, McFall Paper Co. and Zellerback Paper Co.

HERE IS GOOD IDEA

You will probably send the big Annual Oregonian or Journal back east. Get the Xmas Number of the Vernonia Eagle and send with it.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Cleveland are having a splendid time touring, as a recent card from Mr. Cleveland tells us they just started across the pond for Honolulu.

Vernonia is looser when the W. A. Gressman family leave our city. Next Monday Mr. and Mrs. Gressman and son will move to Springfield, near Eugene. We hear that Mr. Gressman is slated for City Attorney in the city he moves to. At Vernonia, besides his law practice, Mr. Gressman filled the Christian church pulpit every Sunday. Their host of friends regret their leaving, but our loss is Springfield's gain.

E. E. Hayes is reported to be laid up temporarily with a severe cold.

To make your holidays complete with pleasure be sure to attend the "Dumbbell's Frolic" given by many citizens next Monday night in Coyle's hall.

BUY YOUR HOME NOW ON TERMS

Payments as low as $100, balance like rent at 6 per cent. Good modern plastered houses, electric light and water. Will consider trade for bonds or securities. Enquire at Bank of Vernonia.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilchrist is reported considerable improved after a severe illness with fever.

The Chamber of Commerce will circulate 300 copies of the Eagle Annual to enquiring strangers.

The school children are enjoying a ten day vacation.

Mrs. Sarah Spencer is spending Christmas in Portland.

Floren Mills, Weston Sheeley, Heman Dixon, Earl Condit, Hazel Malsten and Alvin Parker are home from college for the holidays.

MARCH IS "OREGON MONTH"

Oregon will receive, next March, the greatest volume of concentrated advertising on a national scale in the history of the state.

During that month, an advertisement on Oregon will appear in 22 farm publications reaching 25,000,000 readers, as a part of the million dollar advertising campaign of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Burlington lines.

Advance proofs of the advertisement, furnished by the railroads, have been forwarded to all commercial organizations of the state by the State Chamber.

"Read Why 50,000 Farmers Packed Up and Moved to Oregon" invites the banner line across the face of the attractive copy, and a coupon is provided with which to secure the booklet "Oregon For the Farmer".

The month of March has been designated as "Oregon Month" by the co-operating railroads. During that period, it is expected that an enormous volume of inquiries from agricultural districts of the nation will be received.—Oregon Business.

Vernonia water system has been giving splendid service during the cold snap. The big pump going at nights.

About the busiest place in town the past ten days has been the post office. Mr. Messing has had several assistants and each have been busy every minute. Thousands of sacks full of Xmas packages have went out to every state in the union and thousands have been received. Three windows have accommodated long lines of patrons, and Mr. Watt has delivered from the depot many heavily loaded trucks of the mail. The post office crew have been hard workers and each have demon-

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

To all our friends—Old and New—We extend the time—Hallowed Greetings.

Heartiest Good Wishes for a Joyous Yuletide Season—the happiest you ever knew. And, after all why shouldn't this Christmas be one of Joy and contentment? There is Turkey and Plum Pudding to be enjoyed, with those you love best to help you enjoy them. You have future years of success and prosperity to look forward to. Back of our wish for your Christmas happiness is our whole institution, loyal to your interest and expressing good will by earnest effort to serve you.

May you have an overflowing measure of happiness and prosperity throughout the coming year.

Cordially

Miss W. B. Turnage

Chas. F. Hieber

A. A. McDonald, Manager

Miller Mercantile Co.

VERNONIA, OREGON

HOFFMAN HARDWARE COMPANY

Wishes You a
Merry Christmas
And a Very Prosperous New Year

strated much patience in serving a particular public.

GASCO BRIQUETS

We have a car just in. Best fuel and cheapest you ever used. Phone or call up the Vernonia Trading Co. They are ready to deliver.

Post No. 119, of Vernonia, has had much activity in the past month. Several of the members of the Post The American Legion, will journey to Portland to absorb the thrills of a night in Paris which occurs on every New Years Eve. by Post No. 1

During the short term served this year most all of the officers were re-elected. Officers for the coming year are: M. E. Carkin, commander; Wm. Folger, vice-commander; Eugene Thompson (known as McGobbles) Adjutant; H. E. McGraw, Finance officer; Guy Shield Sargent at Arms, Fred Brewer, Chaplin. Commander Carkin appointed A. L. Kullander, J. C. Lindley and J. H. Graham on the Executive committee. For publicity were: David Smith and A. L. Kullander; Historian, Art Whitaker.

New members added to the Post were Lee Schwab, Bert Hawkins, and P. Zantotto.

Starting the New Year we have a membership increase of over two hundred per cent. Although many organizations are extending a helping hand to the needy during the Xmas holidays, the American Legion will re-serve their charitable work for a little later on when the Xmas spirit is more or less subdued.

What's the Quickest Way to Reach 2000 People?

Call Up the

Vernonia Eagle