EDITORIAL

Kid McCoy, ex-pugilist, was convicted of manslaughter Monday in Los Angeles, after jury was out 78 hours. The verdict was a compromise and leaves a bad taste with some who agree with McCoy's own statement: "If I am not guilty as charged, I am not guilty at all."

C. S. Jackson died at his Portland home last week. C. S. Jackson was owner and publisher of the Oregon Journal. He made the Journal one of the high ranking papers of America, and a paper that has improved every year of its existence. Mr. Jackson took the Journal in 1902. Prior to that he was owner of the East Oregonian in Pendleton. He was 65 years old and every year was one of accomplishments.

It is termed a "Silver Thaw". Why not a "Silver Freeze"?

Beginning today and for at least a half dozen years will be the best times the Pacific Northwest ever knew. If you don't make money in Oregon this year and longer, you might as well acknowledge you are N. G. and spend the balance of your days croaking with the grouch club.

The Inland Highway can be paved by bonding. A map of the Inland Highway and descriptive article on the subject in last Sunday's Oregonian was the truest and best yet offered.

Last Saturday, for the first time in history, an automobile crossed the Willamette River on the ice at Portland.

Every angle of Oregon is a glimpse of wonderland. The whole matchless state is a World's Fair unto itself. Therefore, let us capitalize Oregon's scenic grandeur, its incomparable resources, its $60,000,000 highways, its picturesque senhores, its Crater Lakes, its Marble Caves, its Old Oregon Trail, its Mount Hood Loop and its other countless attractions and enchanting lures, and this objective will benefit materially all the Pacific Coast States.

A man with few words hasn't any business trying to solve these new cross word puzzles.

A New York editor says but one girl out of five is fit to be kissed. That may be true of New York, but around Vernonia you can't find one that isn't worth it.

A lot of people will be unhappy in heaven when they find they can not pass any laws or institute any reforms.

A Seattle dancer fell and broke her nose. She must have been doing the "aviation glide."

There are a few people in Vernonia who can show you your faults with as much pleasure as if they were pointing out the sights of the town to a stranger.

The good auto drivers do not die young—but they make a lot of others do so.

Haven't you noticed that some fellows put in more energy shirking than they would need to put in at working.

We heard a Vernonia man say yesterday that they call it a "bumper crop" when the prices bump the farmer.

Our definition of a "flapper" is a girl who thinks the most important thing in the world is getting her complexion on straight.

We sometimes feel that a good many divorces could be avoided if the cooking schools of the country had more scholars.

It doesn't do any good for Vernonia parents to worry over their children—all they do is worry their children by it.

One thing every Vernonia mother knows that it is a harder job to train a husband than it is to train his child.

Speaking of income taxes, most of us around Vernonia are more interested in the howcome than we are in the income.

Dan Taylor wonders what barber will do in future with all the hairpins they pick up on the barber shop floor.

It must be almost as hard for soldiers in China to tell what army they belong to as it is for them to tell what they are fighting for.

Experience is a great teacher so long as you don't spend all your time repeating the same lesson.

Distance lends enchantment all right, but not to the felow who has a punctured auto tire.

It's sometimes a good thing to have to keep your nose to the grindstone, then you haven't got time to use it in sniffing into other people's business.

Start This Year Right

IF YOU ARE YOUNG—

There is one habit among the thousands known to humankind that youth should acquire above all else. That is the habit of thrift. And thrift comes through saving.

IF YOU ARE MIDDLE-AGED—

You'll find the going faster from now on, and each year will see you nearer the day when your ability to earn will be curtailed. The best protection is a bank account.

IF YOU ARE AN AGED MAN—

You do not have to be told differently it is to grow old with a nest egg from attaining it as a dependent. And you owe it to the younger generation to point out to them the lesson of thrift you have learned.

The man who starts a savings account the first of the year will shake hands with himself a year from now.
