BABY DROWNS THIS THURSDAY NOON

As we are ready to print we hear the sad intelligence of the drowning of the baby of Mr. and Mrs. Orvilla Daoust. Sorrow sometimes visits homes suddenly and with out notice or warning as is this sad occurrence. The baby boy would have been eighteen months old this Friday. The little fellow wondered away from the yard for a time and fell from the bridge that crosses the river a few feet from the home. Mr. and Mrs. Daoust and family have the sympathy of all in this sorrow now being made.

CONFIDENCES

Barber—"Your hair is very harsh and dry, sir." Voice-Culture Expert—"So is your voice; but I didn't like to mention it."

TOO SHORT

Newlywed—"What's wrong with the pie-crust? It doesn't half cover the pie?" Mrs. Newlywed—"Why, dearest, I asked your mother how to make them to suit you and she said to make the crust very short."

SHE WAS SAFE

Margaret—"Can a person be punished for something he hasn't done?" Teacher—"Of course not." Margaret—"Well, I haven't done my geometry yet."

"See Hoffman About It"

Many VERNONIA WOMEN HAVE SEEN THE LIGHT---Now they are happy and healthy and let the machine be the Wash Woman

Undisputedly the world's leading washer—you must have heard about it. Women everywhere are talking of its wonders: 50 pounds of dry clothes an hour—a tubful of linens, silks, woolens, spick-span in half the time required by any other washer—never a bit of hand rubbing needed, even on wristbands or colars.

Not a dolly, oscillator, or any type you're familiar with—but an entirely new principle—years ahead. Its results will amaze you.

Don't fail to try it—next washday or sooner if you wish. Phone immediately.
