EAGLE FEATHERS

Isn't it about time they were holding a disarment conference out at Herrin, Illinois?

The modern test of will power in Vernonia is to work cross-word puzzles or leave them alone.

Thereis n't much honer among thieves. Look how often bandits rob filling stations.

Beverages containing more than one-half of one percent alcohol will be sold as long as we do not have 100 per cent law enforcement.

It's hard for the average Vernonia man to understand how a millinery store can go bankrupt.

Many of the sealskin coats sold during the winter were worn by rabbits and pussy cats last fall.

It has been our observation that the man who pities himself does much of anything else.

Most Vernonia married men will tell you that the only time a bachelo has the best of it is right around house cleaning time.

Many a man congratulates himself that he has reached the top when he has only been laid on the shelf.

There wouldn't be many marriages in this country if all young women looked like the printed pictures in the fash ion magazines.

Why is it that a Vernonia man will spend hours praising the biscuit his mother used to make and never mention anything about the dough his father used to make?

As a general rule the proof of the pudding is what it does to you after you have eaten it.

We an't help feeling that when old Gabriel blows his trumpet there will be some people stubborn enough to criticise his music.

About the only thing left these days that a nickel will buy is a shine on one shoe.

Why will Vernonia auto drivers continue to refer to certain class of people as "road hogs" when a hog has more sense than to take achance on being killed.

The navy needs more airships, but we don't hear anyone urging more windbags for congress.

When it comes to keeping out of trouble, nothing can beat minding your own business.

The robin's song and crisp young onions will soon inform every citizen of Vernonia that old spring is ready to make her report on hog jowl and dandelion greens.
