SAN JACINTO DINNER
As Longview is the home of many folks who have come from the south and southwest, there has been a demand for a gathering of Texans. A great day for a celebration among Texans is that celebrating the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto.
This day is April 21st and it will be celebrated in Longview for the former Texans at a San Jacinto Dinner to be held at the Hotel Monticello. All Texans invited.

Mr. Mathews, of Vancouver, one of the owners of the drug store in the Vernonia Hotel building, was in town this week.

A new candy kitchen is starting business in the Allen building.

C. A. Olsen is the gentleman who will build the big smelter at Gold Hill, and with Mr. Olsen at the head of it it is an assured proposition.

In a few months, with the completion of the smelter, the gold district of Forty years ago California got lots of credit for gold that was actually obtained in Oregon. For forty years Southern Oregon has waited for a smelter. Mr. Olsen is doing a wonderful development work.
