A dog and pony show drew quite a crowd on Monday night at the Parker auto camp. The show was a very good for a small one.

Variety Vernonia is growing into the "City Class." A Japanese Noodle house is being established.

Been a cool, damp summer so far—in fact very little summer weather. But they are dying of the heat in the east.

Please, appeals, prayers or the law couldn't keep Mr. Kullander home for the ball game Tuesday evening. He had a good excuse, however, as he was responsible for the safe side to the Eastern Star convention for Mrs. Grunden, Mr. Space, Mrs. McNeill and Mrs. Kullander.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new planing mill. In a few days the machinery will be installed and the hum of the planers heard.

Herman Schmidt, who has been barbering at the Soden shop, with his family, left this week for his former home in Iowa.

The Columbia County Rose Show is the name of the flower exposition that Clatskanie is sponsoring to take place in Clatskanie next week. Various towns of the county are sending "Queens" to the show. Tickets are being old and the profits, or a certain percent of the profits will go to the American Legion hospital fund. We are informed Many votes are being sold in Vernonia.

EAGLE FEATHERS

The woman who says all men are alike, ought to marry the man who says he understands women.

Our advice to the Vernonia girl who wants to improve her complexion is to put it to bed before 2 a. m.

When you read that a man "lost control of his car," it doesn't mean that he was back in his payments on it.

When a Vernonia man has a new hat he's glad if it is like the one all the other men are wearing, but you never saw a Vernonia woman who looked at hers that way.

This much has to be said for Doc Cook. He conducted the only polar expedition that ever wound up in a penitentiary.

A woman writer says that mischief causes dimples, Yea, and dimples very often cause mischief.

We've noticed that the man who wants to commit suicide and means business never shoots himself in the foot.

We may live to see the time when a Vernonia man and his wife are both chosen to sit on the same jury—but we never expect to be old enough to see 'em agree.

Now is the time to practice up on mowing our little weeds—and getting in shape to tackle the big ones later on.

This is a free country, but the trouble is most of the good seats are already occupied.

The trouble with the wheat farmers has been that while they raised the wheat, they usually depended on a little crowd in Chicago to raise the price.

Our idea of a foresighted girl is the one who has already mended the hammock for the summer season.

We heard of one fellow near Vernonia who got both a bride and ar auto about a year ago and now he's trying to decide which one to keep.

The library association wish to take this means of thanking the public. All those donating to the library fund; also for books donated and to those who so generously gave their time during "tag day," making the occasion so successful. The library is open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from two o'clock until four o'clock. One evening each week, the date to be announced later. We are glad to see the great interest being taken and the number of books going out. It is for the public and free. Patronize your library.
